Hon. Mr. Mowat said the government had made a statement to the Dominion government of what they claimed in regard to the boundary award, that their right to the timber and land should be recognized, and that their jurisdiction over the terri-tory should be recognized. Sir John Mac-donald refused, to assent to this, and sug-gested a second arbitration, before Lord Cairns or Lord Selborne. He refused, as he believed that any second arbitration should be before the privy council. If the should be before the privy council. If the arbitration held was not satisfactory, no other would be, as the arbitrators were known to the country and respected. Mr. Waters, (North Middlesex) said the license inspection act was working well in the interests of morality and the coun-try. He believed last session that the boundary award would have been confirm-ed before this session. He did not see how the Dominion authorities could have acted as they did, as the arbitrators could not have arrived at any other decision. If he had opneed the government on every other have arrived at any other decision. If he had opposed the government on every other question, he would have supported them on the boundary award.
