A party of about twenty, organized by Mr. E. A. Hicks, took advantage of the splendid sleighing and attended the pie social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ruggles and Mrs. William Todd at Dalhousie on Thursday evening last. The social was a complete success, and all report a good time. The sum of $22.00 was realized, which wil be used for shingling the Methodist church in Dalhousie ing the Methodist church in Dalhousie the members of which are very grateful to the people of Bridgetown who attended, and especially to Mr. Hicks who organized the party,

RED CROSS ENTERTAINMENT

Owing to the sad event which we chronicle in this issue (the death of Captain R. T. Ruggles) the entertainment in aid of the funds of the local Red Cross Society which was to have taken place last night has been pastboned until after Easter. The reason we feel sure will be obvious to our readers. We need hardly say that tickets purchashed for last vious to our readers. We need hard-that we consider your MINARD'S by that tickets purchased for last LINIMENT a very superior article and night will be duly honored when the entertainment is given. Timely notice will be given of the date of this. In the meantime it would greatly help the Society if would-be patrons would still purcahse their tickets at the present time and thus capable them. present time and thus enable them to continue their work without enma

FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVER-SARY OF MR. AND MRS. JARVIS CHUTE.

A most interesting event took place on Monday evening, February 12th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Chute. The day marked the fiftiet wedding anniversary of Mr. Chute's parents, our respected townsfolk, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Chute. A large company of friends and relatives assembled, to extend egogratulations to the bride and groom and to wish them many more years of wedded happiness. A sumptuous repast was served, and the evening passed pleasantly in games and other amusements. Rev. G. C. Warren offered formal congratulations.
