

the Steamers—American and English after-dinner Customs—Gentlemen the same all over the World—Mischief of Abusing the Americans—Mrs. Trollope's Misrepresentations—Yankee Dialect—Summer Travellers on Lake Ontario—Blunder of Miss Martineau 131

CHAPTER IX.

TORONTO.

Approach to Toronto—First Impressions on Landing—Inconvenience and Danger of the Pier—Improvements suggested—Singular History of Toronto—The Iroquois Indians—The Red Men of the Forest—Fatal Effects of Spirituous Liquors on the Indian—Origin of the Name of Toronto—French Fort—Description of the City—Immense Value of Land—Public Buildings—Residences of the Gentry—Houses of Parliament—The Roads—Brine Springs—Characteristic Anecdotes of the late War—Prices of Provisions in 1824, and in 1840—Frozen Provisions—Fishery—Game—Public Amusements—Society at Toronto—The Aristocracy—Servants—
Wages of Labourers and Artizans—New Mode of heating
Houses 145

M

CHAPTER X.

TORONTO, AS THE LATE CAPITAL OF UPPER CANADA.

Toronto before the Union—The Court of Chancery and other Courts of Justice—Government Officers—The Church, and various Religious Sects—Local Courts—The College of Upper Canada—Public Schools—Banks and Banking Companies—Commercial System—Price of Provisions and Luxuries—Mischievous Ostentation in the Style of Living—Official Incomes—Astonishing Increase in the Value of Land—The Canada Land Company 178

T

CHAPTER XI.

NIAGARA, OR NEWARK.

An Excursion across Ontario—Splendid Steam-ships—Foam of the Falls—American and British Forts—The Town of Niagara—Welland Canal—A Blunder—Professional Pre-

T

Inf