

A SAD ACCIDENT.

So busy was Miss Muffet with her sewing; as we saw last week, that she never noticed the mischief that was going on beside her. Toby and wee Blackie, her two kittens, got hold of Miss Dolly, one by the head and the other by the feet, and pulling as hard as they could—behold Miss Dolly's head came off. When little Miss Muffet saw this she cried as if her heart would break. We will see what happened next, next week.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

MARY'S PRAYER.

"Dear God, bless my two little eyes, and make them twink[e] happy; bless my two ears, and help me hear my mother call me; bless my two lips, and make them speak kind and true; bless my two hands, and make them good and not touch what they mustn't; bless my feet, and make them go where they ought to; bless my heart, and make it love God, mother, father, George, and everybody. Please let ugly sin never get hold of me, never!"

A little Swedish girl was walking with her father one night under the starry sky, intently meditating on the glories of heaven. At last, looking up to the sky, she said: "Father, I have been thinking that if the wrong side of heaven is so beautiful, what will the right side be?"
