"THE BIBLICAL REPERTORY AND PRINCETON REVIEW."

THIS able Periodical has now completed the 29th volume,—thus its course has not been a short one; nor does it show any symptoms of falling off, but promises to be still a rich quarterly feast of instruction and literary enjoyment for many years to come. We do not know a better—we might say an equal—work for Ministers and Theological Students; indeed for all intelligent and inquiring Christians. It can be got through the Rev. Andrew Kennedy, London, C. W., at the reduced price of $2 50c., which includes the charges of United States postage, and there is only 2d. of Canadian postage to pay on each number. By sending the names of new subscribers, with that sum to Mr. Kennedy, the work will be regularly forwarded per mail, from Philadelphia, in January, April, July, and October.
