PINIONS of THE PRESS PINIONS of THE PRESS

[First Notice.]

DIOGENES, a pictorial comic paper, comes out with a much pleasanter face than might be supposed to have been habitual with the old Cynic. The paper, printing, and enterprise generally, have made a step beyond anything yet attempted in this much tried line of journalism. As a general thing, the wit is a shade too deep for cursory readers and minds that seek amusement rather than study; but the capabilities of the paper may be judged from the opening or introductory cartoon, which represents old Diogenes merrily devouring a heap of oysters to the tune of "It is our opening day," and quoting Shakespeare as follows: "Why then the World's mine oyster, which with sword will open. The following feeling lines, (entitled "One More Unfortunate") should not be confined to its columns.—Montage of the property of the Dominion; but when we state that among its merits will be the notice and discussions of the property of the strength of this kind in the chief city of the Dominion; but when we state that among its merits will be the notice and discussions of the property.—Quebec Chronicle.

[Second Notice.]

The second number is better than the first. The wood-cutting in it is exceedingly good. It is a respectable production.—15.

[Third Notice.]

[Fourth Notice.]

DIOGENES, to-day, contains one of the cleverest things we have seen in the way of pictorial wit. The old Cynic is represented coming suddenly into our City Council chamber and holding up his lantern to discover and holding up his lantern to discover and the reading matter in the last number of the Athenian Philosopher Diogenes. The honest man. Most of the Councillors sink to the eyes behind their desks, while one hides his head entirely: but the light falls upon an excellent likeness of Councillor Alexander, sitting in the calm dignity of rectitude and benevothence. The picture is entitled "Sterling Worth," and Diogenes reversing the well known words of the Macedonian conqueror says: "If I were not Diogenes I would be Alexander."—16.

[Fourth Notice.]

Diogenes No. 5.—A marked improvement is perceptible both in the subjects of the Athenian Philosopher Diogenes. The honest man the last number of the Athenian Philosopher Diogenes. The Athenian Philosopher Diogenes is perceptible both in the subjects of the Athenian Philosopher Diogenes is perceptible both in the subject in the last number of the Athenian Philosopher Diogenes. The Athenian Philosopher Diogenes is perceptible both in the subject of the Athenian Philosopher Diogenes is perceptible both in the s

The illustrations are extremely good. When we say that so far as the design is concerned they are worthy of John Leech, we are merely doing them justice.—Montreal Daily News.

It is very well printed, and the wood cuss are well done both by artist and engraver. We wish the new comer every success; and we hope the course of events will give the writers good subjects on which to display their genius. Montreal Gazette.

[First Notice.]

DIOGENES.—This is the title of a new comic paper published in Montreal, and which, if we may judge from the first number that has reached our hands, is a decided hit, and deserves support. The rock on which our Canadian humorists strike is 'personality,' and indeed it is easier to be personal than witty. We trust that Diogenes will avoid the danger, and continue to afford matter for good-humoured laughter.—Montreal True Witness.

[Second Notice.]

DIOGENES.—Our friend improves upon acquaintance. His jokes are good, his illustrations are excellent, and, best of all, he keeps clear of personalities. Long may it be so; and as long as it is so with him, he will deserve and obtain success. and obtain success.

Perhaps, if he were better posted up in all the facts relative to the three deserted children, to whom he makes allusion, he would revise his judgment of the Reverend Director of the St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum. All our charitable institutions, Protestant as well as Catholic, have rules and regulations which must be have rules and regulations which must be adhered to; and surely if blame be attributable to any one, it is to the living father of the deserted children. This unnatural fellow should be compelled by law to provide for his own little ones; nor should he be allowed to shuffle off his moral responsibility. Pitch into him Drocknes I and you will have the sympathies of all honest men.—76.

Diogenes. This new comic illustrated paper, published at Montreal, can be had at Geo. E. Morton's. The engravings are very cleverly executed, the carroon in the number before us worthy of Punch in its best days. Halifax Citizen.

[First Notice.]

There is room for a respectable and cleverly conducted journal of this kind in the chief city of the Dominion; but when we state that among its merits will be the notice and discussion of topics of general more than local interest, we have given another reason for the belief than Drogenss will establish a powerful claim to an extensive support throughout the Dominion.—18.

[Third Notice.]

The illustrations of our witty contemporary are a creditable proof of the progress of art in Montreal. We hope this venerable cynic will in his lantern, search for honest men, find such a goodly number in Canada as materially to change the somewhat prevalent opinion that public men are, generally speaking, rogues.—

DIOGENES.—The third number of this intergesting interpolation of the interpolation of the progress of art in Montreal. We hope this venerable cynic will in his lantern, search for honest men, find such a goodly number in Canada as materially to change the somewhat prevalent opinion that public men are, generally speaking, rogues.—The third number of this intergesting in the contains two neatily executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes —No. 8 has been received. Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes received, Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes received, Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes received, Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes —No. 8 has been received. Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes received, Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes received the Volunteers," and "Diogenes received the volunteers," and "Diogenes received the volunteers," and "Diogenes received, Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes received, Its meatly executed cartoons, one entitled "A struggle for a Mitre." The Bishops of the Volunteers, "and "Diogenes received the Volunteers," and "Diogenes received the Volunteers," and "Dio

[Fourth Notice.]

Must Justice be restrained by Fear?
Must righteous judment fail?
Must Truth, with Falshood weighed, appear
A Feather in the Scale? &c. —16.

[First Notice.]

This addition to the comic literature of the This addition to the comic literature of the sister city promises well, both in spirit and appearance. The illustrations are superior to anything yet produced by its rivals and predecessors, and the reading matter is clever and confined within the limits of good taste. The title is somewhat cynical, but judging by the virguette our Canadian Drocenes has studied his philosophy as much at the feet of the laughing Thracian as before the tub of the sour Athenian. Let him provoke laughter at men's follies while blaming them, and all will heartily wish him success, —Quebec Mercury.

[Second Notice.]

The second number of Diogenes is like Joey Bagstock—" deep, and d—sh sly;" too sly, perhaps, to take with the multitude. The cartoon is excellent, and would do credit to Punch; so is the scene at the Laprairie Camp.

[Third Notice.]

The matter is certainly clever and original, and the engravings of a very high degree of excellence.—/b.

Il se publie à Montréal un petit journal anglais, satirique et comique. Pour fouetter les ridicules de son temps, il saffuble du manieau et du nom de Diogene. La lanterne à la main (ne pas confondre avec le fanal rouge du citoyen Buies) Diogene avec le lana! rouge du cloyen Bules) DIOGENE cherche des hommes affliges de quelques ridi-cules pour les immoler à sa verve caustique. Inutile de dire qu'il a beau jeu à frapper chaque fois qu'il sort de son tonneau. Souvent, DioGENE frappe juste et lance au but ses traits acérés.—Fournal de Quebec.

Diogenes is decidedly ahead of anything of the kind ever attempted in Canada, in so far as the general get-up is concerned. The as the general 'get-up' is concerned. The typography is handsome, and the engravings are excellent. The 'goaks' are of a higher order than have hitherto characterized publications of this class. Altogether it is a sheet of no mean order, and we wish it a long and useful career.—Huntingdon Journal.

PINIONS of THE PRESS

This is another and the latest Punch Pape in the Dominion. It has great merit in a pictorial light, with sufficient promise of fun to make us look for more in future. And it contains within it signs of longevity, being well patronized in the advertising line. Its humour is quiet and subdued, with no approach to illustrations existed and subdued, with no approach to illustrations have struck and perished. Wishing it success, and requesting it to keep free from libel, we wait patiently for No. Two.—Kington Whig.

[Second Notice.]

The first two numbers make a good appearance—the reading matter and illustrations being somewhat racy, not even inferior to Punch across the Atlantic—New Glasgew (N. S.)

The third number of Diograms, a weekly Camic Paper is well got up mechanically, and is success, and requesting it to keep free from libel, we wait patiently for No. Two.—Kington Whig.

[Second Notice.]

[Second Notice.]

We have received the first three numbers We have received the first three numbers, and it grows more clever as it advances in age. Some of the cartoons are decidedly excellent. The last is "A struggle for a mitre," in which the coveted object is reared upon a pole, and one aspirant by standing on the shoulders of a brother is able to extend his hand provokingly. brother is able to extend his hand provokingly near to it without the power to touch it. The reading matter is very good, displaying much liveliness and humour, but never degenerating into rude personality. We wish Dicenses a long and prosperous career, which he certainly deserves, and hope that he will soon have to enlarge the dimensions of his Tub. The scintillations of his lantern should attract a large grown of admirers. Guelok Alexance. rowd of admirers .- Guelph Mercury.

The reading is very good, and some capital hits are made. We wish it success.—Bedeville Intelligencer.

The reading is racy, original, and by no means intemperate,—Brantford Courses.

We have received the first three numbers, he cuts of which are pungent and unmistakably significant. We recommend it to our readers significant. We recor -Peterboro' Review.

The whole thing is well got up, and the paper deserves to be liberally patronized.—
Morrisburg Courier.

The ents are very good, and the text spark-ng with wit. We wish it success.—If aterloo ang with with Advertiser.

We hope the cynical philosopher will succeed, and obtain a liberal support.—Stantend Tournal.

The first number bears evidence of talent and wit of a high order, while it is at the same time free from vulgar personalities. We quote two pieces from it on our first page.—St. Johns (Q.) Netus.

DIOGENES is the title of a new comic paper published in Montreal, the first number of which has just reached us. The illustrations are very creditable and the letterpress enter-taining. We wish Diogenus success.—Ottaini Citizen.

DIOGRARS is not at all particular how it panches its contemporaries and officials around Through whom back numbers may be obtained Montreal. Typegraphically it looks well—neatly got up f and, with the wit and satire displayed by its editor, it must command a large circulation. - Granby Gusette.

Diocienes is the name of a new comic paper started in Montreal. Its "witticisms" are very good, being of a somewhat superior style to what is generally found in publications of the kind on this side of the Atlantic.—Halifax Express.

PINIONS OF THE PRESS

Montreal has a new comic illustrated weekly entitled Diograps. The opening numbers have some good hits, and promise well. The cortoons are creditable indesign and execution. We trust our Provincial neighbors will apprehensive the hold of which has appeared at Montreal It is ably edited, and got up in good style, the engravings being first-class.—Lendon Provincial Cale. Transcript.

DIOGENES.

In response to the wishes of numerous

DIOGENES will be sent every Friday,

free by post, to any part of the Dominion.

and be delivered within the City limits, at the rate of

$2.50

per Annum, payable in advance.

Intending Subscribers are requested to notify their wishes to

DIOGENES.

Box 5843, P. O.,

MONTREAL.

The following have been appointed Agents for the sale of DIOGENES in the principal Cities and Towns of the Dominion :-

HALIPAX..... Messis, Morton & Co.

" HAUSER & FULTON OTTAWALL JONES & HOLLAND

KINGSTON Mr. HENDERSON.

TORONTO.... " IRVING.

OURBEC Messra Holliwell, and

MIDDLETON & DAWSON.

Monthly Parts, neatly stitched in coloured wrappers, will be ready for issue in a few days, price One Shilling

January 1, 1869.