THE Kincardine town council has repealed the by-law granting a bonus of $30,000 to the Kincardine and Teeswater railway.

THE mason work on the bleachery building at the Montreal (?) Cotton Company's works at Valleyfield, Que., is finished, and the masons are now erecting the new three-story building for the looms.

A good deal of pressed hay is being shipped from Kingston. For some weeks past the shipments have amounted to eight or ten car loads daily, an average of about 100 tons. About half was for the United States, and the remainder for English and other old country ports.

ROCHON BROS., a building firm in Montreal, called their creditors together last week, and made a proposition to pay 50 cents in the dollar. They owe $27,000, and show nominal assets of $23,000, but largely unrealizable. Napoleon Taillefer, in the same business, at St. Henri suburbs, Montreal, has assigned; $9,000 represents his indebtedness.

SEAFORTH has a new telephone and electric alarm system, which is said to give great satisfaction. It is erected by the Automatic Telephone Company, which has a similar exchange at Mitchell.

TRACK laying on the Ottawa, Arnprior and Parry Sound railway now extends as far as Renfrew. With continued fine weather the track will be laid as far as Eganville before winter sets in.

ACCORDING to the Sackville Post, the Port Elgin, N.B., woolen mills are doing well. Since they were burned three years ago the business has steadily grown. Eighteen hands are now employed making tweeds, homespun, flannels, yarns, etc.; 40,000 lbs. were manufactured last season. The market is largely local, but sales are sometimes made in St. John and Montreal.

AT St. Alexandre de Kamouraska, the estate of the late Joseph Michaud, trader, who died in August last, has been put into the hands of the assignee. The business was an old established one in the locality. Liabilities are $9,474; assets, $10,947 in amount.

A MARITIME province exchange says, referring to the West India trade, that the last steamer, lacking space, was compelled to refuse much of the freight offered. The bulk of the goods are fish, flour, potatoes, hay and other produce; some horses also go forward.

A DECIDED tribute is paid to the services of Mr. Milne, collector of the port of Victoria, B.C., in connection with the Behring Sea disputed case, by an editorial in the Colonist of that city. That journal expresses the hope that something more than the promised "recognition of his services in a substantial manner," may be done to reward Mr. Milne. "A gentleman of wide intelligence, he has for many years taken a deep interest in the sealing industry, and has spared neither time nor labor in collecting the information necessary to put the business in its true light before those in authority."
