

January
1987

- The Prime Minister visited Zimbabwe and met with a number of leaders of the Front Line States at Victoria Falls.

April
1987

- The Canadian Government provided more than $5.8 million during the fiscal year (1987/88) to victims of apartheid in South Africa.

August
1987

- The Secretary of State for External Affairs visited Zambia, Mozambique and South Africa. Mr. Clark held talks with Foreign Minister Botha on South Africa's intentions to initiate fundamental change and enter into dialogue with black leaders;
- The Prime Minister and the Secretary of State for External Affairs met with Oliver Tambo, President of the ANC, in Ottawa.

September
1987

- The Francophone Summit at Quebec issued a resolution on South Africa. Canada pledged $350,000 towards the scholarship fund for South Africans set up by the Francophonie;
- As a result of the success of the $7 million Canadian education programme to date and the high demands placed on it by South Africans and Canadian, an additional $1.2 million was approved, including $500,000 for labour education.

October
1987

- At Vancouver, under the chairmanship of Prime Minister Mulroney, Commonwealth Heads of Government issued the Okanagan Programme of Action on Southern Africa which, inter alia, established the Commonwealth Committee of Foreign Ministers on Southern Africa for the purpose of furthering Commonwealth objectives on combatting apartheid. It is chaired by the Secretary of State for External Affairs of Canada;
- $500,000 was provided to the newly created Commonwealth Nassau Fellowship Programme for black South Africans who qualify for university or technical college education but lack the necessary funds.