

Definitions

Article 2

1. Expressions and terms used in this Convention shall carry the definitions of the ITU Radio Regulations.
2. The amateur and amateur-satellite services are radiocommunication services according to Article 1 of the ITU Radio Regulations, and are governed by other provisions of the Radio Regulations as well as by national regulations of the State Parties.
3. The term "IARU" shall mean the International Amateur Radio Union.

Provisions Relating to the International Amateur Radio Permit (IARP)

Article 3

1. The IARP will be issued by the permit holder's home Administration or, to the extent consistent with the home country's domestic laws, under delegated authority by the IARU organization of that State Party. It should conform with the standard form for such permit contained in the Annex to this Convention.
2. The IARP will be drafted in English, French, Portuguese and Spanish and in the official language of the issuing State Party if different.
3. The IARP will not be valid for operation in the territory of the issuing State Party, but only in the territory of other State Parties. It will be valid for one year in visited State Parties, but in no case beyond the date of expiration of the national license of the holder.
4. Radio amateurs holding only a temporary authorization issued in a foreign country shall not benefit from the provisions of this Convention.
5. The IARP shall include the following information:
  - a) A statement that the document is issued in accordance with this Convention.
  - b) The name and mailing address of the holder.
  - c) The call sign.
  - d) The name and address of the issuing authority
  - e) The expiration date of permit.
  - f) The country and date of issuance.
  - g) The IARP operator class.
  - h) A statement that operation is permitted only for the bands specified by the visited State Party.
