CANADA-EGYPT BILATERAL AIR AGREEMENT REACHED

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, and the Minister of Transport, the Honourable John C. Crosbie, announced today that a bilateral air agreement has been reached between Canada and the Arab Republic of Egypt.

Under the new agreement landing rights for the national airlines of both countries have been exchanged between Montreal International Airport, Mirabel and Cairo.

Both Canada and Egypt will enjoy new opportunities to tap the Canadian market for tourism to Egypt through making expanded use of facilities at Mirabel.
