

- Resources are about 75 per cent of U.S.A. bank resources, 84
 Mr. Mellon's opinion, 84
 No interest paid on deposits, 83, 86
 Arrangements made in 1915 enabling farmers get money at low interest, 88
 As operated in U.S.A., would not be feasible in Canada, 89
 No transaction made that is primarily for the purpose of gain, 90
 More bank failures in U.S.A. during past 5 or 6 years than in any comparable period, 78
 U.S.A. bank failures, 1926, 1927, 80
 Bank consolidations and mergers in U.S.A., 81
 Mutual savings banks in New England States, 82
 Not favourable to Government guarantee of bank deposits, 90
- Hyndman, Mr. G. W., Assistant Deputy Minister, Department of Finance, Ottawa Ont.
 Federal Reserve System in U.S.A. duplicated in Canada by Treasury Board as far as necessary, 52
 Discount rate, 53
 Treasury Board amount outstanding in 1922, $61,000,000, 54
 Treasury Board amount outstanding at present time, $14,000,000, 55
 Dominion notes are backed by gold to extent of over 50 per cent, 56
 Federal Reserve notes are backed by not less than 40 per cent gold, 56
 Gold production in Canada, 57. (See also Exhibit No. 2, page 114.)
 Gold basis, suspended during war, was resumed on 1st July, 1926, 58
 In a sense. Canada was never off gold basis during war, 60
 Statement showing export of gold from Canada, 1917 to 1928, 114
 Statement showing monthly merchandise trade balances of Canada, April, 1916, to February, 1928, 117
- Ladner, Mr. L. J., M.P.
 Memorandum outlining the functions of a proposed Federal Reserve Bank of Canada, 30
- Phipps, Mr. Albert E., President, Canadian Bankers' Association and General Manager, Imperial Bank of Canada.
 Bank note issue privilege, 21, 23
 Central bank of re-discount exists, in effect, in Canada at present time, 23
 Commonwealth Bank of Australia, 23
 Small banks in agricultural districts in U.S.A. show bad record during recent years, 24
 Suggestion that Government lend direct to Wheat Pool commented upon, 25
 Control of credit, 25
 Mr. Mellon, U.S.A., on control of prices, 26, 35
 Governor Harding, Federal Reserve System, U.S.A., on control of prices, 26
 Fewer banks now than formerly indicates that regional banks do not serve country adequately, 27
 A federal reserve bank of re-discount would not tend to strengthen smaller banks, 27
 Banks in U.S.A. are making less use now of Federal Reserve Banks as means of re-discount, 29
 Finance Act is satisfactory and provides credit when required, 32
 Experience showed that guaranteeing of savings deposits in U.S.A. unwise, 43
 No legitimate loan properly secured is refused by banks anywhere in Canada, 44
 Existing banks in Canada have no objection to additional banks being incorporated, 44
- Ross, Mr. Henry T., Secretary, Canadian Bankers' Association.
 Interest rate changes are determined by Treasury Board, 93
 Present gold reserve in Canada, $93,973,000, 95
 Present holding of gold by banks, $66,000,000, 95
 Purchases of gold by Government, 97
 Keen competition between banks to get business, 99
 Retailers in a liquid position have no difficulty in securing loans, 100