

The said Clause was then agreed to.

Clause 278 was reconsidered and it was proposed to amend it as follows:—

“Provided this subsection shall not apply to any area of any Province wherein and during such time of the year as such animals may be lawfully at large under the laws of such Province.”

The said amendment was declared lost.

The said clause was then agreed to.

Clause 325 was reconsidered and agreed to.

Clause 374 was reconsidered and subsection 4 thereof was amended as follows:—

By striking out the words “by a by-law” in the last and second to last lines of the subsection, and inserting the word “the” after the word “obtaining” and before the word “consent” in the second to the last line thereof.

The following was added as subsection (5) thereof:—

“(5) Any specific powers inconsistent with the provisions of this section and conferred on any company by any Special or other Act or authority of the Parliament of Canada or of an province shall not be affected by the provisions of this section, but if any municipality complains to the Board that any company whether incorporated by Special or other Act or authority of the Parliament of Canada is exercising its powers oppressively or in bad faith the Board may hear such complaint and if it sees fit supervise the exercise of such powers: Provided always that whenever any company incorporated by Special Act of the Parliament of Canada acquires the assets of a company operating within a municipality, which said municipality has the right by agreement to purchase any of the assets of such company, then and in every such case the municipality may enforce its rights under such agreement as fully as if such purchase had not been made, and may enforce against such purchaser the provisions of such agreement as if it were the original party entering into such agreement with the municipality.”

The said Clause, as amended, was then agreed to.

Clause 387 was reconsidered and agreed to.

Title read and agreed to.

After a while the Senate was resumed, and

The Honourable Mr. Blain, from the said Committee, reported that they had gone through the said Bill, and had directed him to report the same, with several amendments, which he was ready to submit whenever the Senate would be pleased to receive them.

The said amendments were then read by the Clerk.

The said amendments were concurred in.

On motion it was ordered,

That Rules 24 a and b and 63 be suspended in respect to the said Bill.

The said Bill was then read the third time.

The question was put whether this Bill shall pass.

It was resolved in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk do go down to the House of Commons and acquaint that House that the Senate have passed this Bill to which they desire their concurrence.

The Honourable Sir James Loughheed moved:
