SUPPLY

Hon. Mr. Rose moved concurrence in the items of Supply reported on the 18th instant—namely, the Department of the Receiver-General, $15,850; Finance Department, accounting branch, $12,650; Finance Department, audit branch, $19,200.

In reply to Mr. Mackenzie,

Hon. Mr. Rose said the Government could not yet state what allowance would be made for the Civil Service Commissioners.

Mr. Hutchison said he had examined the report of the Civil Service Commission, and found they recommended a scale of expenditure about $50,000 greater than was paid last year. He could not see where the economy came in. In looking over the public ac-

SUBSIDES

L'hon. M. Rose propose l'adoption des crédits du 18 courant, à savoir: $15,850 pour le ministère du Receveur général; $12,650 pour le bureau de la comptabilité du ministère des Finances; $19,200 pour le bureau de vérification comptable du ministère des Finances.

En réponse à M. Mackenzie,

L'hon. M. Rose déclare que le Gouvernement ne peut pas encore citer le montant qui sera accordé aux commissaires du Service civil.

M. Hutchison déclare qu'il a lu le rapport de la Commission du Service civil et qu'il a constaté que les dépenses recommandées sont de $50,000 supérieures à celles de l'année dernière. Il ne comprend pas ce chiffre. Les
