

S.O. 21

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): In my opinion the yeas have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): Call in the Members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Côté (Langelier)), which was agreed to on the following division.

Mr. Speaker: I declare the motion carried.

Bill read the second time and referred to a legislative committee.

Mr. Lawrence: Mr. Speaker, is the result of that vote because some Members voted twice, or are some of the Members being counted as voting once? I really think there should be some clarification.

Mr. Speaker: I think the Hon. Member knows that the votes were counted as Members intended them to be counted.

EMPLOYMENT EQUITY ACT

MEASURE TO ENACT

The House proceeded to the consideration of Bill C-62, an Act respecting employment equity, as reported (with amendments) from a legislative committee.

Mr. Hnatyshyn: Mr. Speaker, I think that under the circumstances it would probably be appropriate to call it one o'clock. Now that the Bill has been called for consideration, we can commence our deliberations in earnest after Question Period.

Mr. Speaker: I take it that the House agrees that the Chair now see it as one o'clock.

Some Hon. Members: Agreed

Mr. Speaker: It being one o'clock, I do now leave the Chair until two o'clock p.m.

At 12.56 p.m. the House took recess.

AFTER RECESS

The House resumed at 2 p.m.

STATEMENTS PURSUANT TO S.O. 21

[English]

THE ADMINISTRATION

MOVEMENT OF SECRETARY OF STATE FOR YOUTH

Hon. Chas. L. Caccia (Davenport): Mr. Speaker, the Tory Government has done it again. By moving the Minister of State for Youth (Mrs. Champagne) from the Secretary of State to Employment, the Government is downgrading the importance of youth in Canadian society. All the Government is going to do from now on is to consider youth as an employment problem.
