

March 16, 1929

James A. Lightbourn, Esq.,
Apartment 10,
105 Decarie Blvd.

Dear Mr. Lightbourn:-

Dean Ira MacKay has forwarded to me your correspondence of February 23rd last, with the request that it be laid before the Principal on his return.

I think that most of the ground which you wish to cover is already being dealt with by the Canadian Committee on Modern Languages carried on under the auspices of the Conference of Canadian Universities.

Professor H.A. Buchanan of the University of Toronto has been much interested in the work of that Committee and I feel sure that he would welcome your co-operation.

I suggest that before going any further with the present scheme you communicate with him. It would be somewhat difficult for this University to take the initiative in