

The French and Indian War, from the pen of a French

Produced a quantity of 500 to 600 copies, large paper, 10x15

[illegible]

The above is an inaccurate copy in pristine condition, having in our public library, as in private collections in Amsterdam, and in various other places, the question of which is correct, at this time cannot be decided. The above is an inaccurate copy in pristine condition, having in our public library, as in private collections in Amsterdam, and in various other places, the question of which is correct, at this time cannot be decided.

[illegible]

The numerous fine maps and illustrations are listed below:

Full-page Plan of Fort Lewis - Folding; Plan showing the first agreement at Lake George, 1760, with a plan of Fort William Henri (folding) of the Forts Ontario & George with part of the River
Ontario, 1764 - French Plan (folding) of Fort Ontario & Upper 1786 - Folding Plan of Fort Niagara; Bull and Deland by M. J.
Map of the Attack on Little Chybeco, Major-General Abercrombie, Com-Folding Map of the Village of Arc, N.Y., incorporated upon a 2nd at Fort Schuyler, presented to Col. Greenough by I. Tupper; 2d (folding); Full-page steel engraved presentation of Sir William's Plan of Fort in presentation - Folding Plan of the attack on St.
River St. Lawrence by the army of Gen. Amherst, detailed by M. J.
Folding Sketch of Mohawk River and Wood Creek, showing the Falls
Fort Bull, Fort William, and the Crown Point; Full-page Plan
Folding Map; Carte des Frontiers Francaises et Anglaises dans la Montreal includes an fort de Beauport; - Folding Map of the Northern New York; - Folding Map of the Country of the Six Nations, from and to William Lyon, 1711 - Full-page steel engraved views: The falls in the Mohawk River; North-West View of the City of New York
View of the City at New York; Lower Contrast Middle Seneca River
Great Cataract; Little Seneca River; Lake Ontario.