

A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

ALL spurious Lists must be very deficient and erroneous; the Piracy of the Army List, with the application for authority, in opposition to the only desirable authority, is absolutely the most audacious, invidious invasion on property that ever was attempted; and I hope the universe could not produce eighteen more booksellers who would be concerned in such a scandalous insult upon trade.

With the same conscience they would, if possible, strip mankind, even one another.

This is your Liberty and Property!—Booksellers, fomenters of defamation, sedition, treason, and blasphemy, are the very grave of liberty! O grief of griefs!

By means of such daring desperadoes the liberty of most nations has suffered.
