USUAL PERCENTAGE ONE FAVORITE WINS

Frosty Face Only Horse to Reward the Public at Hillcrest Park.

Only one favorite got home in front at Hillcrest Park yesterday. Long shots, outsiders, second choices and everything but public choices scored. Frosty Face was the only one to reward at public odds. The stock is as broad as our claim for it—if there's a man we can't fit or please or satisfy, he's going to be the rare exception that proves the rule.

ANNUAL MEETING OF TORONTO CHESS CLUB

A reproduction of the painting of Karel Van Mander (Holland), showing Shakespeare and Ben Jonson playing chess, was presented to the Toronto Chess Club at the annual meeting, held last evening in the St. James' clubrooms, Church and Adelaide streets.

Few chess students have been aware, and will, no doubt, be pleased to know, that the great English bard of Avon understood and enjoyed the royal game. The fact that J. P. Morgan was prepared to offer one million dollars for the original of this famous painting makes the gift of Mr. Hunter, the new president, a rather interesting gift, and it is sure to prove a great curiosity to all visitors at the clubroom, where it now hangs.

A very favorable report of the past year was made by the retiring president, Mr. G. K. Powell, to the fifteen members present, and the following officers were all unanimously elected:
Hon. president—Right Rev. Bishop W. D. Reeve, Dr. N. S. Shenstone, Mr. R. P. Gledhill.
President—Mr. R. G. Hunter.
Vice-president—Mr. A. C. Crewes.
Secretary—Mr. Malcolm Sim.
Treasurer—Mr. G. K. Powell.
Publication agent—H. H. Demers.
Directors—John Powell, A. W. Campbell, E. B. Freeland, D. J. McKinnon.
Some of the prizes of the past year were presented by Right Rev. W. D. Reeve to the following winners:
Ladies' Championship Cup—Miss A. L. Sanderson, who also received a set of chess men.
City Championship Cup—Mr. Malcolm Sim, who also received a gold medal emblematic of the honor.
The winners of the different class tournaments were: Class A, Mr. W. H. Perry; Class B, A. W. Campbell; Class C, Kenneth O'Brien.
