

harden myself also to the most vexatious disappointments.

15th October.—I want to go and fetch our sledge, or at least all that we could save out of it, by means of a boat, for there is no other way; but I want a good many men, and they are all in want of something, without which they cannot start. With God's help, I promise myself that I will not return from a third attempt without having reached Port Leopold.

END OF VOL. I.

LONDON :

PRINTED BY J. CLAYTON, CRANE COURT, FLEET STREET.