

I N D E X.

Page		Page
	Prize —Taking away a prize from the custody of the marshal—
	COSSACK . . . . .	513
	— Court of, in a neutral country, cannot deliver on bail, without the consent of owners—HIBBERT, Haynes . . . . .	40
269	— before condemnation, is a trust, and cannot be alienated, without the consent of all parties, or unless perishable.
286	The king has no vested right till condemnation.
292	The king's officers and boards of service, have no right to purchase where other persons have not; and have no pre-emption where sales can be made.
327	Cases of public necessity for defence of the country form an exception—CURLEW, MAGNET, and others . . . . .	312
389	Prizes —detained upon the declaration of war by the United States , and under the order in council, 31st July , 1812, and ultimately condemned to the king, jure coronæ , as having been taken before the order for reprisals, could not be sold or bailed, without an authority from the king, unless in a perishable state.
446	Measures taken for their preservation—Petition of Sir John Warren, &c. . . . .	327
470	— Proceedings respecting the agents appointed by the crown, to receive them—Snook's petition, &c. . . . .	427
497	— Taken before the order for reprisals, 13th October , 1812, not given to the captors by the order for distribution—MALCOLM, Jordan . . . . .	379
	— Taken under commissions from the governor of a province, without a warrant from the Admiralty, not given to the captors, by the proclamation for distribution—LITTLE JOE, 1st case . . . . .	382
2, 23	Property —Enemy's covered—VENUS, Oakford . . . . .	12
312	forfeiture of property connected with it—HERKIMER . . . . .	17
128	— American , concealed as Spanish , in the slave trade—LA MERCED, Echeveria . . . . .	205

R.

219	Ransom —When justifiable, under the prize act—The FANNY and the PLOUGH BOY . . . . .	554
231	Ransom Act —22 Geo. III. chap. 25, and the clauses in the prize acts, relating to ransom, extend only to vessels captured in war, not to those seized for other causes—PATRIOT, Reardon . . . . .	350
9	Registrar —Entitled to 5 per cent. upon the gross amount of all the money paid into the registry—HIRAM, Orme . . . . .	583