cc South-side, call'd by the French Acadie, fell again into the 66 Hands of Sir William Alexander. In 1632 it was given " away again, and the French kept it many Years." But without any legal Right, unless King Charles could legally give away what was not his by Inheritance, Purchase, or Compact with any Purchaser, and did indeed belong to those British Adventurers, who were at the Charge of planting and fettling there. Oliver minded not these Givings; but as foon as he was poffess'd of the Government, he sent Major The French Sedgwick to retake it from the French, who pretended they an Nova Sco- bad bought it of Sir David Kirk; and in Truth the French King had purchased Sir David's Right to Canada for 5000 l. which was never paid. Crown of England. Ancient here refers to Cabot's Landwell's Orders ing, and taking Seizin of it in Henry VIIth's Reign, 160 Years before Oliver's Time; but being afterwards inform'd that Monsieur St. Estienne de la Tour, Son and Heir to Seigneur Claude de la Tour, of the House of Bouillon, of the reform'd Religion, had bought Nova Scotia of the Earl of Sterling, and was come over to England to folicit the Restitution of it, Gromwell order'd it to be restored to him, upon making out his Title.

> And here it may not be improper to take Notice, that most of the French who transported themselves to America, in the last Century, were Protestants, whether to the Continent or the Islands. Admiral Coligni had form'd a Scheme, in the Reign of Charles IX. to transport a numerous Colony of Huguenots, to North-America, and intended to follow them himself in Person. Great Preparations were made for the Reception of himself, and his Friends; but a treacherous Peace with the Court of France diverted him from the Thoughts, of it at that Time, and they soon after cut his Throat, to rid themselves of him, both at home and abroad: By which
