WHOLESALE FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

Strawberries.—The first Canadian strawberries for this season came on the market yesterday.

Letuce.—Head letuce declined sharply in price, and the bulk of it was a decidedly low sale at $2.50 to $3 per case.

Apparagus was shipped in lightly and brought from $1.25 to $1.75 per 11-quart basket.

Tomatoes.—Domestic hot-house came in more freely, while the retail price of the same range of prices, they were a little drabber.

White Co., Ltd., had a car of Florida tomatoes at $6.50 to $7.50 per case.

DOMESTIC EXTENSION OF LIFE STOCK MARKET

With a light run of fresh cattle at the Union yards yesterday, 225 head of stock, the general market was a good deal stronger, probably from 25c to 40c on all classes of butcher cattle.

Good milkers and springers are holding steady, and taking the market all around, the trading was more animated with a good clean-up.
