E. Loyalists—Canada Life Appeal of Ne Avail.

Hamilton, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Ald. Board, chairman of the Parks Committee, who has been practically running the parks business, got a litle set-back at the meeting of the Parks Committee this afternoon when he tried to railroad through a report granting one Diach a beach site at a rental of $3 a year. The property is on the north side of the canal, and is known as the tenzers' reserve. Diach proposed to build a shack or shacks on it. Ald. McFadden put up a fight against it, saying he had to pay $10 a year for his lot. Anyway, he was opposed to granting permission to erect buildings on the property. The chairman finally asked that the matter be left over.

Corey Must Pay Up

It was announced that a number of the beach residents owe several years' rent for their lots. In the case of Fred Corey, who, it is alleged, owes $50, it was decided to take steps to collect the amount.

The committee decided to sell the lodge at the gate of Dundurn Park to the highest bidder.

Canada's Debt to U. E. Loyalists.

Sir John Bourinot of Ottawa this evening delivered an address on "Canada's Debt to the United Empire Loyalists" in Central Church school room, under the auspices of the Wentworth Women's Historical Society. T. H. MacPherson, M.P., was chairman. Sir John's address was most interesting, and replete with valuable information. He told of the famous migration of Loyalists in 1783, and the benefits that had accrued to Canada. Their descendants had accrued to Canada. The Canada Life Appeal.

At 10 o'clock this morning the Court of Revision began the consideration of the more important appeals, those which are represented by agents or lawyers, and in which, if reductions are made, they are likely to be of larger amounts. However, by noon, although the appeal of the Canada Life Assurance Company among others had been made in the assessors' figures.

The Canada Life Assurance, represented by Bruce, Burton & Bruce, was assessed for $133,600 real property, $4000 personalty and $40,000 incomé. It claimed that the real property is no longer worth the sum mentioned owing to the removal of the head office to Toronto, and objected in toto to the assessment for personalty and income on the same ground. The court, however, confirmed the assessments, and the county judge will settle it.

Two surprises will be sprung on the Toronto public during the week of Nov. 13th, and from all accounts they are treats that few should miss. The Creole Beauty, the $10,000 Beauty from her home in New Orleans, will be on hand and take her place on the Empire stage. Mile. Zhardna is her name. The second feature will be presented by Raldrano and Cleo, in their superb production of natural phenomena. This is sensational and startling. This will mystify as well as amuse. A strong olio of eight big acts, a first part that is a dream and a beautiful sight, a burlesque that will please the masses, are on the bills. Smoking is proper, and allowed at the Empire.
