HAMILTON CASES

A FAMILY DISPUTE SETTLED
Justice Rose Advised Council in the Case to Prevent Unpleasant Personalities,
AND HIS ADVICE WAS ACCEPTED.

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Justice Rose opened the non-jury sitting of the High Court this afternoon. The list of cases is a light one. The first three cases concerned Mrs. Hawkins of this city, who sued her daughter, Mrs. Sprague of Winnipeg, and the latter's husband, for the recovery of certain sums of money and stocks which she alleged had been wrongfully appropriated. Justice Rose suggested that as the hearing of the cases would bring out unpleasant personal issues, it would be better for counsel to come to some settlement. This was done, and an agreement was entered into that the lawyers concerned announced was satisfactory to both sides. S. F. Washington, Q.C., and J. V. Trevel, Q.C., acted for plaintiff and defendants respectively.

Fire From an Unset Lamp.
A lamp was accidentally upset on the residence of George Vanier, 181 Eglinton, Canon-street, tonight, causing an explosion and a fire. The department was called out. Little damage was done.

Seeking His Release.
A young man who gave his name as John Henry was a few weeks ago arrested and imprisoned by G.T.R. Detective Bradley, and when taken before a magistrate he pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy and was sentenced to six months in Central Prison. Now, however, that the man has been released, he is seeking his release.

Appointment This Week Sure.

STEAMER PERSIA BURNED TO THE WATER'S EDGE AT THE CITY DOCK

Firemen Delayed Five Minutes by a Long Train on the Esplanade
—Part of the Crew Had a Narrow Escape From Death—
Flames Were Fierce—Vessel a Wreck.

The steamer Persia of the Toronto & Montreal Steamship Company's fleet was almost wholly destroyed by fire last night in Toronto harbor. The boat was tied up in her winter berth at the west side of Geddes' Wharf, at a point opposite Lakeside Park. The work of the firemen there was creditable, despite the fact that they had many difficulties to overcome.

THE ILL-FATED PERSIA.
The steamer Persia of the Toronto & Montreal Steamship Company's fleet was almost wholly destroyed by fire last night in Toronto harbor. The boat was tied up in her winter berth at the west side of Geddes' Wharf, at a point opposite Lakeside Park. The work of the firemen there was creditable, despite the fact that they had many difficulties to overcome.

Discovered at 7 p.m.
The fire was discovered a little after 7 o'clock by fireman George Ward, who was at the time coaling up preparatory to his going on watch. His attention was attracted by the noise of the explosion of a lamp, which occurred in Nightwatchman Smith's quarters, situated between decks near the stern. Fireman Ward hurried to the scene of the fire, and he found that the Persia was on fire.

Harried to Escape.
In the meantime those on board who had been aroused were making hasty retreats to the lifeboats. The Persia was on fire, and the Persia was on fire.
