

The BATTLE of THE SOMME

"The greatest moving picture in the world"

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE

SEE that this picture which is in itself an epic of self-sacrifice and gallantry, reaches everyone. Herald the deeds of our brave men to the ends of the earth: This is your duty."

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE, Secretary-for-War, declares that it is the duty of British people to see official photographic records of the Battle of the Somme. These wonderful moving pictures will be shown for the first time in Canada next week, under the auspices of The Toronto Daily World. In England the film received first formal presentation at the Scala Theatre, September 8, before a distinguished gathering, including members of the general staff. Mr. Lloyd George from pressure of business was not there personally, but he was present in spirit. And he sent the following remarkable message, probably the strongest commendation ever accorded a moving picture, a message that applies throughout the British Empire.

"THIS IS YOUR DUTY, "THIS IS YOUR MISSION."

I am convinced that when you have seen this wonderful picture, every heart will beat higher in sympathy with its cause and purpose, which is no other than that every one of us at home and those abroad shall see what our men at the front are doing and suffering for us, and how their achievements have been made possible by the sacrifices at home.

Be up and doing also! See that this picture, which is in itself an epic of self-sacrifice and gallantry, reaches everyone. Herald the deeds of our brave men to the ends of the earth. This is your duty.

Ladies, I feel that no word is necessary to urge upon you the importance of throwing in the whole ardor and strength of your invaluable aid. Mothers, wives, sisters, affianced ones—your hearts will beat, your voices speak in honor and glory of the living and the dead. You are great and powerful. This is your mission."
