Telephonic Funeral
From Wisconsin comes the report of a funeral by telephone. A Methodist minister of Oakfield died and his bishop was to deliver the funeral sermon. But a severe storm came on and the bishop, getting to the village, since traffic was stopped on the short branch line leading to the place. Stopping at a farmhouse to telephone his predicament to the waiting family, he decided to conduct the service over the telephone, one of the members of the family repeating his words to the mourners—Popular Science Monthly.
