DUNLOP RETIRES AGAIN;

THIS TIME FOR GOOD

Neepawa, Man. Dec. 1—Alexander Dunlop, Laurier Liberal candidate in Neepawa, has again retired, and his resignation has been accepted by the returning officer.

THE ONE CALL

In one company of the Highland Brigade boys, who fought the gallant fight at Passchendaele, every officer was shot down and the men carried off the engagement alone. One of the wounded lieutenants in an English hospital gave this is his message to the people at home:

"Give this story to the people at home at the earliest possible opportunity. The boys I left out there were piteously calling for reinforcements. One of the wounded lieutenants in an English hospital gave
this is his message to the people at
home:

"Give this story to the people at home
at the earliest possible opportunity. The
boys I left out there were piteously call-
