Morning War Notes

The British official report tells of heavy shelling from both sides north and south of the Ancre. There has been much trench mortar and artillery activity on both sides in all parts of the Ypres salient and in the Loose and Hulluch sectors tonic forces back to the westward.

It is understood that the Allies ultimatum was to be delivered to Greece on Sunday. It was reported that King Constantine would join the Central Powers if the Allies break off diplomatic relations.

That the sale was the best in every of any held in more than a decade would of itself be sufficient for the pleased expressions that come alike from breeders, owners, track managers and the race-going public.
