

POOR DOCUMENT MC 2035

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1923

FIRPO CANNOT RETURN PAPERS

His Declaration Must Stand, Says New York Naturalization Official.

New York, Oct. 9.—County Clerk James A. Donegan of New York County, who is also Clerk of the Supreme Court, and as such in charge of its Naturalization Bureau, in answer to the questions as to the status of Luis Angel Firpo with regard to his declaration of intention filed with Mr. Donegan on Oct. 1, and which has caused quite a little flurry both here and in Argentina, causing a chorus of protest in the latter country, makes the following statement:

Mr. Firpo appeared in the Natural-

MOTHER!

Child's Best Laxative is
"California Fig Syrup"

Harry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold, children love its pleasant taste. Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.

FACE A SIGHT WITH PIMPLES

Large and Red. Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals.

"My face was itchy and broke out with large, red pimples. They were scattered all over my face and neck and burned so that I scratched which caused them to grow larger. I could hardly sleep at night. They were a real torture and my face was a sight."

"The trouble lasted about three months. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and the first treatment stopped the itching and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Ora Goulette, R. R. D. 4, Box 90, Barre, Vt., March 24, 1922.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Tablets exclusively for every-day toilet purposes.

LINIMENT FOUND TO BE POWERFUL GERMICIDE

Originally, Absorbine Jr. was sold only as a pain reliever and an embrocation. It was quickly discovered that the liniment was positive death to all forms of germ life, and it is now used as a mouth wash, for wound dressing and for all disinfecting purposes.

Another surprise was yet in store. A Wm. Pratt of Springfield, Mass., applied Absorbine Jr. to a varicose vein to relieve the intense pain. Not only did the pain leave, but he noticed every day the swollen vein becoming smaller. The treatment was kept up and, today, Mr. Pratt's legs, though he has never used anything else on them, are as smooth as when he was a boy. It has now been proved that Absorbine Jr. is an actual specific for varicose veins, leg ulcers, boils, pyorrhea and a number of other ailments and injuries besides that for which it was first prepared. Nothing serves so many every day purposes and nothing is better entitled to its place in every home. When it is needed, it will be needed in a hurry. Don't wait for someone to be hurt. Get it at your druggist's today. $1.25 everywhere.

IF CONSTIPATED SICK, BILIOUS

Harmless Laxative for the Liver and Bowels

Feel fine! No griping or inconvenience follows a genuine liver and bowel cleansing with "Cascarets." Sick Headache, Biliousness, Gas, Indigestion, and all such distress gone by morning. For Men, Women and Children—10¢ boxes, also 25 and 50¢ sizes, any drug store.

ization Bureau in the Hall of Records on Oct. 1, accompanied by a gentleman who, I presume, was a personal friend, and who gave his name as Widmer, and stated through his interpreter that he desired to take out his first papers. He inquired as to the length of time he would have to wait to secure it. He was told that he would have to take his turn on the line and that it would be about an hour. He was further told in answer to a query that he might go out to luncheon and come back and his place in line would be saved. Firpo, accompanied by his friend, got back about 2 p.m. and was taken care of in the usual manner. Firpo answered the necessary questions and signed the declaration of intention in his own hand.

I know of no law of ruling by the authorities at Washington that will authorize me to accept the return by Mr. Firpo of his first papers, which, by the way I have not yet received.

At the present time Mr. Firpo's status is that of any other declarant for first papers, and the record of his declaration of intention to renounce allegiance to his mother country. The declaration cannot be canceled by any one, and the holder thereof may after completing five years of continuous residence in the United States, apply for final papers provided he declared his intention at least two years prior to that time.

Mr. Firpo claims that his action in taking out first papers was simply "a graceful gesture of appreciation" and not a bona fide intention to renounce allegiance to his mother country. Mr. Firpo, I am told, is an intelligent man and as such it is presumed that he must have had an object in mind when taking out his first papers. What the object is, or was, I cannot say. If it was done for financial gain then the act, instead of being as he termed it, "a graceful gesture of appreciation," was one of contempt of the Government of the United States and its citizens.

Neither Mr. Firpo nor any other foreigner can use any agency of the United States as a means of furthering their personal or financial interests, and no foreigner, whether Mr. Firpo or any one else, need fear that the American people do not honor and treat with utmost fairness any one who has respect for the Government of the United States.

Giants Get Jersey Man.

Cape May, N. J., Oct. 9.—Boyd Tyler, right fielder of the Wildwood Collegians, has been ordered to report to Manager J. J. McGraw of the New York Giants. Tyler hit .450 this summer. After being graduated from high school he played two years on the Princeton Prep team.

Marlans Specific
Gall Stones
Bladder Stones
Appendicitis
No Operation
KIDNEY STONES
GALL STONES
BLADDER STONES
APPENDICITIS
$5.00 a Treatment
J. BENSON MAHONY,
Druggist
Dock and Union Streets, St. John, N. B.
For Sale at All Druggists.
J. W. MARLATT & Co.
215 Gerrard Street E., Toronto

BOSTON BALL TEAMS TO BE INVESTIGATED

District Attorney Begins an Inquiry at Instance of Bay City Fans.

Boston, Oct. 9.—District Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien of Suffolk County reports that he has begun an investigation of the ownership and management of the Boston clubs of both the American and National Leagues upon petition of citizens of Boston.

The District Attorney said that the petitioners, whom he did not name, alleged fraud on the part of both clubs in the matter of transfer of players to other clubs and in failing to cause their players to do their best to win games. He declined to go into details as to his plans for the investigation.

President Christy Mathewson of the Braves said that as far as the question of ownership was concerned he courted investigation. As to trades, he said the Braves had made but one since the club changed hands this year and that this was "extremely beneficial to the Boston club."

President Robert Quinn of the Red Sox is in Washington with the team. New York Teams Benefited.

Interest in the charges, filed in Boston, that irregularities existed in the conduct of the two Boston major league baseball teams was heightened here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

Eczema Covered Arms of This Healthy Child

Mrs. Alex. Marshall, Sprucedale, Ont., writes:—

60 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

"When my little son was three months old he broke out in sores on his chest and arms. We did all we could to heal those terrible sores, but nothing did him much good. Finally I ventured on a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment and kept on using it. At last we were rewarded by the steady healing of the sores, and finally he was completely relieved of them. He is now three years old, and has had no return of the trouble since."

last we were rewarded by the steady healing of the sores, and finally he was completely relieved of them. He is now three years old, and has had no return of the trouble since."

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

here yesterday because the New York clubs, champions for the third successive year, have benefited chiefly from five years, have benefited chiefly from a long series of deals with the Red Sox and Braves.

The charges came as a surprise to John A. Heydler, President of the National League, who, however, declined to comment on the investigation begun at the request of Boston petitioners. Emil Fuchs, former New York Umpire, who was a chief figure in the deal by which the Braves were acquired early this year by a syndicate headed by Christy Mathewson, was out of town.

It was pointed out, in connection with the charges, that the complexion of both New York and Boston clubs has been materially altered by player

JOCKEY RICE IS KILLED AT JAMAICA

Skull Fractured When Mc-
Kee Crashes Into Rail
During Race.

New York, Oct. 9.—Jockey Ted R. Rice was so badly injured in the last race at the Jamaica track on Saturday afternoon when his horse bolted and crashed through the inner rail that he died a few minutes after being taken to St. Mary's Hospital at Jamaica. His skull was fractured and he was cut about the face and never regained consciousness. His brother, William, and his wife were with him at the hospital when he died.

The accident was one of the most peculiar that has ever happened on a race track in this State. Rice had the mount of Charles A. Stoneham's three-year-old bay colt McKee. The colt was not considered to have a chance against his field and ran last practically all the way.

He was several yards in back of the Rancocas Stable's Stockman as they rounded the turn and was well clear of the rail. The colt approached the last furlong he was running some ten or a dozen feet out from the rail at no great speed, the race being practically over then.

Without warning and for no cause that was discovered after the accident

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

There's Danger IN THE SIMPLE CUT

Your injury may be just a simple scratch, a cut, bruise, burn or scald; but it needs prompt treatment with zam-buk. Neglect and delay leaves broken tissues open to dangerous germ infection and ulceration, blood-poison or even chronic eczema.

Keep zam-buk always handy! This powerful herbal antiseptic applied to broken, chapped, burnt or lacerated skin is instantly effective. It ends all smarting pain and inflammation, makes tissues germ free and germ proof and ensures rapid perfect healing.

Mrs. Valmore Savaria, Moreau St., Montreal, writes:—"I cut my finger to the bone while working an electric machine. The wound went the wrong way and became badly festered. It was surprising how quickly zam-buk stopped the pain. I persevered with the balm, and the wound which for weeks had defied all other treatment was healed perfectly. I shall never forget how zam-buk saved my finger."

In a hundred other emergencies of skin disease or injury, you will find zam-buk invaluable. All chemists 50¢-buc.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was in the grandstand at the end nearest the scene of the accident and was a witness of the tragedy.

McKee swerved sharply and bolted squarely into the rail. The heavy rail was broken about in the middle, and Rice was catapulted from the saddle, his head striking the jagged end of the split rail. Both horse and rider crashed into the starter's stand at that point and demolished it.

Rice's mother was