MORNING NEWS

OVER THE WIRES

Captain D. B. Weldon, M. C., who has been manager of the Johnston and Ward brokerage offices in Montreal, was yesterday in St. John, N. B., to enter the head office of the firm at Montreal, was tendered a banquet at the Hotel Brunswick on Saturday night. Mayor J. F. Edgett presided. Addresses were given by several citizens.

General Christian DeWet, commander-in-chief of the Boer forces in the war of 1900, died at his home in DeWetdorp on Friday. He had a brilliant record as a military commander and was one of the party which visited Europe after the outbreak of the war in 1914. He was made minister of agriculture in the Orange River colony in 1907. Soon after the outbreak of the war he received a sentence of six years imprisonment with fine but was allowed out after serving six months. Later he was instrumental in stopping another rebellion.

Lawrence Tardif, formerly of Grand Falls was struck just below the heart by a piece of lath machine at which he was working on Wednesday in Kegan, Me., and died ten minutes later. His place of residence at the time was Van Buren, Me.

Sir Edward Tootal Broadbent, noted Manchester spinner, died on Saturday in Manchester at the age of sixty-four. Dr. Frank Woodbury, aged sixty-nine, dean of the Dalhousie College of Dentistry, died of heart failure Saturday after a three weeks illness.

Col. William James Stewart, aged 69, died at his home in Montreal on Sunday after a prolonged illness. He will be buried in Halifax where he formerly made his home.

The death of Maurice Fitzgerald, sixth Duke of Leinster and premier of Ireland, was announced yesterday in Dublin. He was unmarried and his successor will be his brother, Lord Edward Fitzgerald.

Cornelius Clifford Jenkin of Montreal, aged over seventy, was stricken with an attack of indigestion after hogsgn on Fletcher's Field, Montreal on Saturday and died soon afterwards. For many years he was a commercial travel-
