In the second of the series in the National Athletic Contest, held at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday night, interest was very keen and some fine scoring was done. The boys of Portland Methodist church made a fine showing, their final average being 280. (This is open to question at a later date.)

settled, but the results should be practically the same.

SOCCER.

Soccer League Going Strong.

Recent indications point to a five-team er league in the city. Enthusiasm is growing high, and the meeting called for Tuesday at the Y. M. C. A. promises a very satisfactory one.

Team probably will be forthcoming from the military organizations in the city, also one from the Hardware Clerk's Association, and the G. W. V. A. A team definitely entered from both the Football club and the Central athletic Association.

A special committee is working now on scheduled grounds, and in a week or two the schedule will be under way and keen competition is looked for in all games.

Any soccer football players in the city should get back into the old game should get in touch with Captain

William Bowie, physical director, Y. M.

Chin Horses to Be Sold.

Mill T. Chinn, who was recently barred from racing on the Maryland tracks following an investigation by the Maryland Racing Commission, will dispose of all his horses, twelve in number. The horses will be sold at public auction in a paddock at Jamaica, New York, on ay 9. While The Jockey Club has so far taken no action with reference to him, it is evident from the proposed sale that Chinn does not intend to attempt to race horses over the New York
