FIRST SHOT IN THE STRIKE IS FIRED

Only One But it is Effective in Labor Trouble in Lawrence

Massachusetts Mill City Practically Under Martial Law—Militia Force Strikers to Disperse at Point of Bayonet

(Canadian Press) Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 30.—In repelling an attempt of a body of strikers to cross the Merrimack River into the mill district early this morning the militiamen fired their first shot of the strike. No one was injured, and when a patrol crossed the bridge a few minutes afterward, they found no one near the scene.

Soldiers on guard saw a body of men gathering on the other side of the river, presumably preparing to cross. One of the strikers fired his rifle and the shot was effective in driving back the strikers. In the plains district, when a body of strikers attempted to form a parade about the time the mills were opening, the militia forced them to disperse at the point of bayonets. Several strikers are said to have been hurt. The strikers showed much feeling and were slow in retreating when the order was given by the military officers.
