JITPOLD IS UNIQUE AMONG WORLD'S RULERS

Regent of Bavaria is a King Without a Throne — Has Escaped Madness That Has Overtaken Many Members of Family

The German reigning princes, headed by ...e Kaiser, contributed a series of royal ...ottoes to a remarkable volume, written ...d illustrated by the most famous living ...ermans as a present to the prince regent ...Bavaria, on his 91st birthday, which ...ll on March 12. The Kaiser's contribu- ...on is:

"Ready, aye, ready, for the glory of the ...mpire."

The Austrian emperor writes:

"Consciousness of duty, well and truly ...one, exalts us in good fortune and com- ...orts us in gloomy hours."

The King of Saxony's motto is: "All for ...ne; one for all." The king of Wurtem- ...urg's: "Sans peur et sans reproche," and ...he grand duke of Hesse chooses: "Faith- ...l unto death."

Luitpold, regent of Bavaria, occupies a ...osition unique in the monarchies of the ...orld. He is the doyen of European ...ulers, yet he is a king without a ...hrone. He is the younger son of Ludwig ..., and so is not the heir to the crown, ...et the succession lies in his family—and ...e may yet be king, for though more than ...0 he is hale and sane.

Insanity Curse of House

For it is insanity that has made the ...agedy of the House of Bavaria. His ...ather was driven from the throne; his ...lder brother, Maxmilian II., who became ...ing, was a physical and mental nonentity. ...His nephew, Ludwig II. was made King ...nd drowned himself, and his other nephew ...he uncrowned Otto, is madder yet.

Fortunately neither Ludwig nor Otto ...arried, while this sane Prince Luitpold ...he Regent, has a son, a grandson and a ...reat-grandson.

Prince Luitpold married the Archduchess ...ugusta of Austria, and their son, Prince ...Ludwig of Bavaria, is the next heir. Their ...on, Rupprecht, married the beautiful ...oung Duchess Marie Gabrielle, youngest ...aughter of the eminent royal oculist, Duke ...Charles Theodore of Bavaria, and their lit- ...le son, Prince Luitpold is the third in the ...rder of the succession after his name- ...ake and great-grandfather, the present ...egent.

Peace and prosperity have prevailed ever ...ince Luitpold took up the reins of govern- ...ment on June 13, 1886, and his proclama- ...ion as King of Bavaria has at various ...imes been mooted on the ground of King ...Otto's incurable insanity. The opposition ...o such a step has come chiefly from the ...ruder German rulers, who consider it a ...angerous precedent.

When quite a young man Prince Otto ...howed various signs of brain trouble, ...but the first serious symptom occurred ...during the Franco-Prussian war, when he ...alled out a squadron of cavalry and or- ...dered them to charge a stonewall, under ...the delusion that it was a body of the en- ...my's infantry. This was in 1870 just be- ...fore the siege of Paris, and the old Kaiser ...William immediately summoned him to the ...headquarters of the general staff, and kept ...him there under the close observation of ...Bismarck and von Moltke.

His dementia did not, however, become ...so acute as to necessitate complete meas- ...ures of isolation and restraint until 1876— ...at a time when his brother Ludwig, al- ...ready tainted with the same malady, had ...been on the throne for twelve years. He ...was then put away in the castle of Nym- ...phenburg, not far from the capital. Thence, ...two years later, he was transplanted to the ...more solitary spot of Schleissheim, in the ...woods of Beerchtesgaden, and finally to ...Furstenried, so that for 35 years he has ...been permanently shut up.

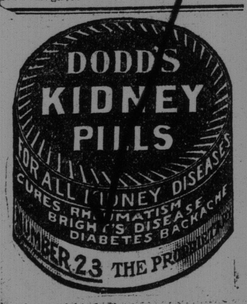
King Growing Worse

The mock court at Furstenried consists ...of a few of the old nobility of Bavaria, ...certain mental specialists and attendants, ...a group of faithful family retainers. Every ...month an official health bulletin is sent ...to the regent and the government in Mun- ...ich, and once a year a responsible mem- ...ber of the government pays a visit to Furs- ...tenried to report on the king's condition, ...which grows increasingly hopeless each ...year.

At one time he used to pass the whole ...day in the park, and when indoors would ...amuse himself by studying the operas of ...his favorite composer Verdi. Then airs ...from Rigoletto would pervade the castle. ...He also consumed innumerable cigarettes. ...A martyr to the horrors of insomnia, he ...would spend his nights sitting up in bed ...staring steadily at the door, as if haunted ...with the expectation of some phantom or ...real apparition.

Now he never speaks; his functions are ...merely mechanical and he usually sits on ...the floor in a state of appalling apathy.

In an electric gun invented in England ...which seems to be successful a projectile ...is hurled through a tube by the action of ...electromagnets on the outside.



AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

OPERA HOUSE.

This afternoon and evening The Step- ...child, a play from the pen of Chas. Klein, ...the author of The Third Degree and David ...Warfield's great success, The Music Mas- ...ter, will be seen at the Opera House. It ...is a story of graft and politics exposing ...Wall street and upholding the honest ...man, interwoven with one of the prettiest ...romances of parental love and devotion. ...Thursday evening The Straight Road, a ...story of slum life in New York city, will ...be the attraction. Miss Blanche Walsh ...was the star of the original production ...and when presented by this company last ...year made one of the big hits of the en- ...gagement.

THE GEM

What is announced as one of the most ...fascinating Biograph romances given for ...some time is one of the features for pres- ...entation at the Gem today and tomorrow ...in the attractive story of the life of "The ...Spanish Gypsy." The deep power of love, ...and equally strong hatred felt by a Spanish ...girl for an unfaithful lover are defined, ...and the Biograph company players have ...capably enacted the roles and natural ...scenery. The Edison company presents a ...strong love drama "Love and the Stock ...Market," dealing with the commercial am- ...bitions of a young man as they effect his ..., and so is not the heir to the crown, ...success in matrimony, and showing what ...a pretty girl can do in the face of trying ...circumstances. In making motion pictures ...all is not fun, and the Selig company gives ...a picture showing the troubles of an op- ...erator in his work. They also present a ...pretty child-story, "Led By Little Hands," ...which is of heart interest. Tom Waterall ...will sing "Love Light," and the orchestra ...has some new pieces.

THE UNIQUE.

The Wednesday and Thursday programme ...at the Unique Theatre is said to be as ...full of interest as a nut is full of meat. ...Foremost of all will be an elaborate pro- ...duction from Gaumont. "The Priestess of ...Carthage" a tale dealing with the time, ...at which Carthage was at war with Rome. ...The film is beautifully colored and every ...attention has been given to the scenic ...effects, acting and costuming. "Sweet ...Memories," an Imp. fireside yarn, presents ...a noble sentiment and stands out in this ...week's subjects. "The Lass Who Dared" ...is a Western story by Thanhouser, with ...Saving Father," a sparkling comedy. ...Miss Alice MacKenzie will continue her ...singing of "Ever Lovin' Southern Gal," ...for the last time, wearing her brown street ...gown. For the latter part of the week ...her offering will be the lullaby hit, "All ...Aboard for Blanket Bay."

THE LYRIC.

Brace and Gould in the rube comedy ...farce, "The Constable" at the Lyric The- ...atre are pleasing. Again last night they ...provoked roars of laughter by their clever ...songs, dances and dialogue. The Rube ...character as portrayed by Mr. Bruce was ...much enjoyed. The programme will be ...changed entirely tomorrow. Emile Chev- ...alier, a Parisian comedy trick violinist, ...is expected to prove a treat in his odd ...manner of bringing music from the violin. ...He plays with wash board, bottle, shoe, ...piece of paper, and other articles. The ...matinees will begin at 3 o'clock daily and ...shoppers and children are expected to ...hold sway.

IN THREE ACCIDENTS

It would seem that Zam-Buk, the famous healing balm we hear so highly spoken of everywhere, is particularly useful in the family circle. A report sent by Mrs. E. Davey, 786 Ellice Avenue, says: "My little boy, of three, while playing fell from a high veranda to the ground, cutting his forehead badly. Instead of calling a doctor who would undoubtedly have put in a number of stitches, I bathed the wound well, and applied Zam-Buk. The little fellow, although suffering keenly, soon had relief from his pain. In the course of three weeks of applying Zam-Buk daily, the wound was nicely healed.

"Since then I have also used Zam-Buk for a boil which came on my cheek and which proved very painful and looked unsightly. Zam-Buk soon drew the boil to a head and it then quickly banished it.

"Another time my baby was scalded on her left thigh and calf of leg with boiling water. Directly it was done I thought to use Zam-Buk, and spreading some on lint I wrapped up the baby's limb. Next morning she rested much easier and I applied a fresh bandage with Zam-Buk. I kept this treatment up daily, and was rewarded by seeing a great improvement each time I dressed the wound. In a very short space of time the scalds were all nicely healed."

"I cannot recommend this wonderful healing preparation too highly for family use, and I have such great faith in its healing powers that my house is never without a box."

For all skin injuries and diseases, piles, eczema, salt rheum and face sores, Zam-Buk is absolutely unequalled. 50c. a box all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Try Zam-Buk Soap too! Only 25c. tablet.

THE LAST OF THE DUEL
(Kingston Whig)

A proposal has been submitted to the French Chamber of Deputies for the abolition of the duel. The bill provides:

(1) To make the duel a breach of the law, both principals and seconds being punishable by imprisonment for from three months to three years, and a fine of from £4 to £40.

(2) To make the publication of details or of the complete rendu also an infringement of the law, punishable by a fine of from £20 to £80.

Whether or not the bill succeeds in its purpose, the duel is doomed even in France. It has already become a matter of amusement and ridicule, and it will eventually be laughed out of existence, even if legislation should fail.

Yachting

St. John and Digby.

Digby is to have a regatta this summer. The Digby Basin Yacht Club, the large firms interested in the fishing industry, and all the citizens of Digby have taken the matter up and are determined to make it a big success. An invitation has been received by the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club, asking them to participate.

A special race has been put upon the programme for motor boats from this side of the bay. As a first prize in the race, the regatta committee have offered a valuable silver cup. There will also be other prizes.

The R. K. Y. C. motor boat committee had arranged to hold a race for cruising motor boats from St. John to Digby on July 29, but upon receipt of the Digby Club's invitation, the committee immediately met, and changed the date of this race to Saturday Aug. 12, which is the date of the Digby regatta.

Matters connected with the summer racing programme will be fully discussed at the quarterly meeting of the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club, which will be held on Tuesday evening, May 2.

A MINUTE WITH THE FUN MAKERS

HE REMEMBERED THE GORGE.

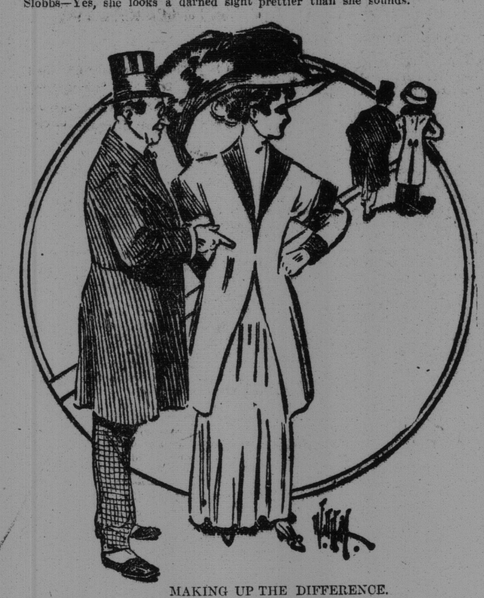
Mrs. Gushing—And oh, the gorge at Andermatt! You haven't forgotten that lovely gorge, have you, Fred?

Fred Gushing—The gorge at the Grand Hotel? No indeed! I'll remember that gorge to my dying day. Why, bless me, it was the only square meal we got in Switzerland.

LOOKED FINE.

Blobbs—Don't you think she looks pretty playing the piano?

Slobbs—Yes, she looks a darned sight prettier than she sounds.



MAKING UP THE DIFFERENCE.

"Why do you say they are a well matched pair?

"Because he has lots of debts and she's got lots of money."

CHRYSANTHEMUMS AT TOKIO.

The great autumn shows of chrysanthemums at Dangozaka, near Tokio, offer many wonders to their crowds of visitors —miracles of breeding and cultivation and marvels of arrangements. The road to Dangozaka is bordered with gardens, and at the time of the chrysanthemum shows —a sort of national festival, for the chrysanthemum is the Japanese national flower—the way is lined with stalls of all sorts and made gay with many thousands of flags and lantern.

The village—or suburb— of Dangozaka seems a congeries of chrysanthemum gardens and nothing else. Two sen—which is about a cent—is the price of admission to any garden, and in any and all of them are displayed strange triumphs of horticulture—rows of hundreds of chrysanthemum plants obeying orders in their growth like a regiment of soldiers on their parade. You will see them in long ranks, each plant a facsimile of the next beside it, with exactly the same number of blooms on each.

And not merely that; the top bloom will be fully opened, and so make one of a perfectly level and equal line of fully opened blooms; the next will be nearly opened, and again one of a similar row; the flowers of the third row of close green buds extends. So that the whole long rank presents a constantly repeated scale of all the beauties of the opening flower, from bud to fullest bloom.

And the marvel does not stop even here; for not only the blossoms, but the leaves are matched in number and situation. In other places, instead of straight lines, the plants are disposed fan-fashion, or in the shape of an umbrella.
