Worcester, its vice-president, were charged with exacting excessive prices and with holding sugar from the market and the American Sugar Refining Company and W. K. THE VETERANS' FAIR.

More than 1,500 people attended the Great War Veterans' Fair last night, in the St. Andrew's rink, and all came away thoroughly satisfied with the good time enjoyed. Every booth was well patronized and the City Cornet Band, in an excellent musical programme, added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. The door prize, a half-ton of coal, was won by ticket number 12727, and the holder of that lucky piece of pastboard can have the fuel sent to any city address by notifying Charles Robinson, Sydney street. The door prize for tonight will be a case of Quaker Oats, donated by Thomas Carter, local representative of the millers.

GEN. DYER BLAMED FOR HARSH ACTION IN INDIAN TROUBLE

Commission Appointed by British Government to Investigate Causes of Unrest in India Submits Lengthy Report.

London, May 25.—The findings of the commission appointed by the British government to investigate the causes of the unrest in India with the attending disorders, was made public today. The commission, under the chairmanship of Lord Hunter, submitted two reports, a majority report by the five English members and a minority report by the three Indian members. An official summary of the two reports given out by the British government says: "With the exception of the Jallian Walla Bagh and certain minor incidents both the Indian and English members generally agree in justifying the firing done by the police and the military. They agree in pronouncing unfavorably upon General Dyer's handling of the Jallian Walla Bagh meeting and upon certain of the orders passed in the course of the administration of martial law. They further agree in exonerating the government of India from all blame. "Regarding Amritsar the English members hold that the outbreak was anti-government at every stage, hostility to government quickly merging into antipathy for Europeans as such, and culminating on April 10 in the brutal murder of five inoffensive persons and savage assaults on others. The Indian members think that the anti-European sentiment developed subsequent to the firing on April 10, but do not dissent from the view that the firing was necessary. "Two English members approve the action of the authorities prior to April 13, considering it impossible that the fact of martial law could fail to result from the happening of April 10. But while admitting the difficulties of the situation they consider that General Dyer's conduct at the Jallian Walla Bagh is open to criticism in two respects, first, in that he fired without warning and second in that he continued firing too long. "This opinion is not shared by the Indian members, who, while agreeing in the condemnation of General Dyer's action, take a graver view of the whole incident, stigmatizing his conduct as inhuman and un-British.

PLANT ALL YOU CAN HANDLE CONVENIENTLY

Advice Given to Maine Farmers by W. D. Jones, Farm Management Specialist of College of Agriculture.

University of Maine, Orono, May 25.—"Plant all you can conveniently handle." This, in substance, is the advice which M. D. Jones, farm management specialist of the College of Agriculture extension service, is giving to Maine farmers. He bases this advice on the belief that it will prove an especially profitable year to the farmer with the courage to take advantage of the prevailing condition—under production, good wages in the cities whence will come the loud call for foodstuffs and the exceptional backwardness of spring throughout the entire country. "It is not unusual," said Mr. Jones, Thursday, "for one section of the country to be backward, but very exceptional for conditions to be so unfavorable all over the country as they were previous to the middle of May. "The southern potato crop is from two to four weeks late. Ohio reports wet weather interfering with seeding. Reports from Indiana say: 'Farmers are greatly handicapped by unusual weather conditions,' from Illinois, 'The latest season in years', from Kansas, 'Spring very backward'; from Montana, 'Unfavorable weather and soil conditions have held farming operations at a standstill throughout practically the entire state'; from Missouri, 'Season is late on account of too much rain.' Many other states report similar conditions. It is evident that work is backward quite generally everywhere. "The season is not only late but fall seeded crops have not wintered particularly well, according to available reports. In Illinois wheat is reported fair to poor; some sections of Indiana reported very poor. The estimated crop of wheat for the country is considerably below normal. Oats quite universally are reported as late seeded and poor. Corn is likely to suffer as a result of late planting. "Labor conditions seem to be about the same everywhere, scarce and generally poorer quality than formerly. "The scarcity of fertilizer in some sections of this state will cut the acreage. Some states report a shortage of some kinds of seed. "If the reports cited represent actual conditions and judging from conditions in our own state we have no reason to doubt them, then for those who are equipped for it this ought to be a good year to plant. "The number of people in cities and towns is much larger in proportion to those on the farms than ever before. As long as high wages are paid for labor in mills and factories produce will find a ready market. Hotel proprietors report prospects for a big summer trade which would make the outlook for local markets good. "The late season, shortage of labor, lack of seed and fertilizer coupled with a strong demand would seem to promise a good season to do business for those equipped that they can.

The total sum Captain Field has taken out so far is $1,065,000 and there are applications for $300,000 more. The policies were distributed among twenty leading companies and Captain Field, having passed exhaustive physical tests, was accepted, paid his premiums today and the policies are now in effect. They are in favor of his wife.
