

PREFACE.

The Publishers take pleasure in presenting to the public THE TORONTO DIRECTORY for (being their 5th annual publication), containing 544 pages. Every effort has been put on their part to make it a credit both to the city and themselves. Reliable Agents were engaged to make a thorough canvass of the city, and take the names, occupations, &c., and their was subsequently revised and corrected by other Agents. It is in this manner that the Publishers endeavor to give their subscribers, and the citizens generally, a Directory on which, accuracy, they can depend.

The Street Directory will be found very full and reliable. This is a valuable part of the being a Directory in itself.

The surrounding Villages have been taken with great care, and are placed in alphabetical after Toronto.

The Miscellaneous information has been carefully compiled, and will be found very complete and of much interest.

Special care has been bestowed upon the Business Classified Directory: in fact, every portion of the work has had the most careful supervision.

The Publishers in taking leave until another year are thankful to all those who have aided in supplying of information, and in bringing the Directory to a successful issue.

MIGHT & TAYLOR.

Toronto, January 1st, 1878.