

prayer, we cannot have great success in our religious operations : but, if we fervently and believingly pray in connection with our zealous and persevering efforts to promote true religion in the world, we enlist the influence of the Holy Spirit upon all we do.

Dear Brethren, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know your labour shall not be in vain in the Lord. May the God of all Grace bless you in body and soul, and prosper you in all good, is the prayer of our hearts.

On behalf of the Conference,

THOMAS CROMPTON, PRESIDENT.

ROBERT BOYLE, SECRETARY.

Toronto, 22nd April, 1858.
