The Aldermen Decide Upon an Expensive Power House Site.

T. C. Nuttal's waterfront property, be tween Herald street and Turret rock, was yesterday selected by the council as the site for the new electric light sta- at this place, and about an equal amount, tion. The price at which this property was offered by Mr. Nuttal was $12,300. R. F. Tolmie offered the same piece of property, but his price was $13,000. The lots were last year assessed for $6,000, showing that during the year the property, in the opinion of a majority of the aldermen, has just doubled in value. It is calculated that it will cost another $5000 to grade the site, there being a lot of rock on it. This, with the cost of the site, will make a big hole in the $55,000 voted by the ratepayers. There was a long discussion as to which site should be selected, several of the aldermen advocating the selection of a cheaper lot, as suggested by Mr. Stickets, the electrician. Others suggested utilizing the James Bay mud flats. It was hardly expected that this site would be selected. althought it was known that four of the aldermen were almost certain to vote for it. It was generally understood that Ald. Wilson would not vote for it. The selection was made on a division of five to four, as follows: For-Ald. Harris, Styles, Baker, Keith-Wilson and Ledingham; against—the mayor and Ald. Dwyer, Humphrey and Munn. Ald. Vigelius was absent.
