San Frincisco, June 20.-Schmitz' atorneys to-night applied to the district ourt of appeals for his release on ball writ of habeas corpus. Sixteen owings are made in the petition. His torneys declare that Schmitz is suffering from an incurable disease, and that imprisonment in a jail will cause

The petition alleges that the section

dolph Spreckles and others, through a coercive power over the board of supervisors, who have confessed their guilt of bribery, to usurp the office of Mayor

THE METROPOLITAN SEE.

Discussion at the Diecesan Synod of Rupert's Land.

Winnipeg, June 20.—At the diocesan synod of Rupert's Land, now in session, Canon Murray, who read the report of a committee on the Metropolitan See.

The report supported the maintenance

The proposal of the committee was that the Metropolitan should in future

mittee of sixteen being formed. 8 from

be elected by a new method, a com

of its central position.

Ellensburg, June 19.—An unknown man was burned to death in a fire today that destroyed several buildings causing a total damage of approximate ly $100,000. The fire started about 1 o'clock this afternoon in the hay shed warehouse across the street to the west and to the residence of R F Reed or the east, and these buildings, together

Dispose (

Ex-Ald. Yat holds strong To the Times it will be a for teh city to d perty acquire Bowker Park many change in the city of land either for extension of t any other re perty should would be a ver sell property back a few year being purchased ernment as a si farm which it is on the Island. alderman expre ive and that the and its location probable that it government. nonents of the p flats is that the that its present double the amount two. Its proximatel and its cent the great fac increase. In is the same. comparatively purposes, or in crease in value, of a profitable lease the mud f amusement, lease of suffici granted and the

if the property years," said one ing the matter. pay the city for

The other sid

ment in the cou

during the he

from the C. P.

calls upon the

merous and so

sale of the r

Park property

the only practi

induced to pass

thorization

struggled w

though the city can sell t

and upon any reasonable, th

perty is to be s

city's financiai

raising of suffici

year's work th

a matter of u council is to

There is at pr

and the appr

not raised this

up against a ha

penses. The pr offered up to

July 3rd at the

mainder of the

MEXICAN

Mexico City, Ju

great celebrati

centennial of th on September

ere expected to

Japanese Ambas

Tokio, June 21 minister of fore clared the rumor C., is without for

REMAI

ROBBED BY LONE BANDIT.

Valuables.

In the locality of his former successes the bandit sood at the side of the road with an old, rusty 44 Win-

The bandit singled out Francis E. Eaton, of Boston, to pass the hat, demanding of the frightened passengers their purses and watches. After having made the collection Eaton was compelled to tie the wealth, consisting several articles of jewelry and $250 in his death. It is understood that the disease referred to is an affection of the kidneys and that it has advanced Capt. Mikkelson and Party Locked in Winter of the penal code under which Schimtz was ordered into custody is unconstitu-Quarters on Alaska Coast---Dr. Steffanson's Situation.

NEWS BROUGHT FROM ARCTIC EXPLORERS

of Bedford. He, however, was visited this winter by Mr. Darrell, an English traveller, who has done a lot of exploratory work along the coast for the Royal Geographic Society. After spending two years on the Arctic coast Mr. Darrell came as far as Dawson with Mr. Cadzow and remained there. Mr. Darrell had met Capt. Mikkelsen has gone. The conditions are very much against it; the immense quantities of floating ice offering a great obstacle to the work.

With respect to Dr. Steffansen, the ornithologist who went overland by way of the Mackenzle river to join the Duchess of Bedford at the mouth of the river, word is brought which indicates that he has gone along the coast line in the seas to which Capt. Mikkelsen has gone. The conditions are very much against it; the immense quantities of floating ice offering a great obstacle to the work.

With respect to Dr. Steffansen, the ornithologist who went overland by way of the Mackenzle river to join the Duchess of Bedford at the mouth of the river, word is brought which indicates that he has gone along the coast line in the seas to which Capt. Mikkelsen has gone. The conditions are very much against it; the immense quantities of floating ice offering a great obstacle to the work.

With respect to Dr. Steffansen, the ornithologist who went overland by way of the Mackenzle river to join the providence of Bedford at the mouth of the river, word is brought which indicates that he has gone along the coast line in the seas to which Capt. The conditions are very much against it; the immense quantities of floating ice offering a great obstacle to the work.

With respect to Dr. Steffansen, ornithologist who went overland by way of the Mackenzle river to join the viver, word is brought which indicates that he has gone along the coast line in the seas to which Capt. The conditions are very much against it; the immense quantities of floating ice offering a great obstacle to the work. left here. The ice about Cape Barrow with Dr. Harrison, who is making exhas interfered with their progress, and plorations for the Royal Geographical they got to a sheltered bay on the Alaskan coast, about 150 miles northwest of Herschel Island, where winter

Mr. Darrell had reported that some one who was to have joined the Duch-sen and Mr. Liffingwell made the trip to Herschel Island to interview the whalers there as to the character of the They had gone in an easterly direction, Beaufort sea and the prospects of land being located off the Alaskan coast. Land, where the Duchess of Bedford The whalers, however, held out no encouragement to the explorers. They reported that if they got 30 days in the year clear hunting they felt they had a good season. In all their travels been the winter quarters.

DESTRUCTION

CITY BY-LAW TO BE

age of a Civic Measure to Deal With Subject.

likely be considered and advanced.

Some time ago nearly fifty residents agriculture, and Thomas Cunningham, provincial inspector of fruit pests, ask-have the beautiful gardens and or-chards of the capital put into a condi-

if he were "reinforced by

(From Saturday's Daily.) among the ice no indications of land D. Cadzow, the trader from Rampart were found. House, Alaska, who is now in Victoria, brings indirect news from the Anglo-American Artic expedition which left here under the command of Captain Mikkelsen and Ernest Liffingwell over a year ago.

Mr. Carzow has not seen the mem
The men from the Duchess of Bedford were in fine spirits and all were affairs of San Francisco by removing all appointive officers of the city by arbitrary, illegal and revolutionary means.

By reason of the grave and serious questions that must arise from carrying out such a scheme the petitioner The men from the Duchess of Bedplorating trip in the schooner Duchess not at all inclined to regard the out-of Bedford. He, however, was visited look as bright for the discovery of land the second ballot one, and so on, un-til three remained, from whom the House of Bishops should select one This discussion brought up some opsolicitors were asked to prepare one.

Ald. Meston was asked to move for its introduction, but not being aware of moved, one of which provided for a introduction, but not being aware of the above correspondence expressed an opinion that the measure might cause a conflict of authority. At Monday's meeting the by-law will be introduced, and the correspondence referred to will proably be read to the aldermen.

The by-law are of which provided for a new diocese in Manitoba being formed, making Winnipeg the diocese of Rupert's Land and retaining it as the Metropolitan See.

Finally, the proposal in its original position, and varoius amendments were moved, one of which provided for a new diocese in Manitoba being formed.

Metropolitan See.

pointed Cannon Murray, Archdeaco committee to prepare a report for the provincial synod, which meets here in DIFFICULTIES SETTLED.

There Will Be No Strike Among West-Surmounted Before Work is ern Union Telegraphers. Full details have come to hand of the the owner or lessee. In case payment of the cost is refused it shall be recoverable under the provisions of the of caterpillars and other noxious and of caterpillars and other noxious and of caterpillars will be considered. It is also provided that the city officials shall have nower to enter unon the western the wes ter which they might care to present.'

UNCLE SAM'S NEW SHIPS.

Will Build Two Dreadnaughts, Each of Approximately Twenty Thousand Tons.

Washington, June 20.—Bids were pened at the department at noon today for the construction of two American "Dreadnaughts," or what are officially known as battleships numbers 28 and 29, each to be of approximately 20,000 tons displacement. The total cost of each is estimated to be $10,000,000. The naval board of design has given the opinion that a vessel constructed on the design which has been selected would carry as heavy armor and as powerful armament as any known vessel of this class, would have a speed believed to be the highest practicable readiness have the highest practicable readiness and have the highest practicable readiness.

wood on every hand. To combat the construction difficulties two camps are now in course of erection. One of these working from Bamfield two gangs of workmen will commence operations, one working from Bamfield towards the camp and the other from the camp. All the materials for the camp will be carried through from Bamfield and will be taken to that point either by the C. P. R. steamers or the vessels now under charter to the marine and fisheries department. an "Dreadnaughts," or what are ofof action, with total bunker capacity of Quincy, Mass., with a bid at $4,377.

Athens, June 21 .- More than one hundred persons were drowned by the flood caused by the overflowing of the Lothos Trikkala, in Thessaly, yesterday.

Mr. Anderson also replied to the city's request for information advising the enactment of a by-law, and the city of Stratford, died at his farm on the 19th.

Winnipeg, June 21.—John D. Hasen, of Some animals are entirely voiceless. Among these are the giraffe, armadillo, and porcupine. In most serpents the

UNKNOWN MAN PERISHED. THE NEW ROUTE Several Warehouses and Cars Destroy ed by Fire-Loss Placed at $100,000. ACROSS CANADA

PRINCIPALS ARE ON in the rear of B. F. Reed's warehouse tional, in that the petitioner is deprived of his liberty without due process of law. The petition further alleges that imprisonment of Schmitz is in furtherance of a conspiracy by Ruis proposed to build from the B. C. coast point to Hudson's Bay, state that know, construction of the line is assured and Five cars, together with their conwill be commenced almost immediately.

To-day Col. May, who is prominently

To-day Col. May, who is prominently such extraordinary circumstances as cretion in admitting the petitioner to > and beginning work on the wharves see it through to completion.

KILLED BY ORE CAR.

Tonopah, Nev., June 21.-George Mar-

Canyons, Bluffs and Rivers to Be Complete

Pachena mountain which rises at the another detour. These obstacles are not avoided the work would prove of a

The proposed route is very rough, for-mammoth character.

ly injured by a runaway ore car.

TRAIL BUILDING

HUGE UNDERTAKING

the provincial synod and 8 from the diocesan synod. This committee should mont mine and his brother, Frank, bad- Boy Tells of Setting Fire to Buildings at Belleville.

his mother and the girl with her moth-

Master.

ORANGE GRAND LODGE.

Vancouver. June 20 .- Routine busi ness took up the morning session of treasurer, W. J. Parkhill, Midland, re A subsidiary camp is also being es-A subsidiary camp is also being established in charge of a foreman and from this another gang will commence of about 510 feet, and an extreme breadth of about 85 feet and 2% inches. The Newport Shipbuliding company of Newport, with a bid of $3,697,000, and the Fore River Shipbuliding company of Quincy, Mass., with a bid at $4,377.

A subsidiary camp is also being established in charge of a foreman and from this another gang will commence the work. This gang will be engaged ver; deputy grand treasurer, E. H. Hocken, Toronto; deputy grand lodge auditors, J. H. Delamere, W. H. Stewwill eventually join up and the trail will be complete.

Over the creeks, rivulets and streams. elected; grand lecturer, J. F. Harper, Over the creeks, rivulets and streams, tario East, Joseph McGill, Manitoba, A bridges will be erected, and these oridges will form part of the trail. One bec, A. Anderson, British Columbia, of the streams over which the route Benjamin Smith, Saskatchewan, A. S. will pass is known as Nitinat river and McKay, Prince Edward Island, E. H. about 150 feet wide. Another called Humphreys, Nova Scotia, T. F. Butt, lumber of which there is such a large quantity so easily obtained. The fact

RIFE IN PORTUGAL Many Persons Have Been Killed and Wounded in on Third street, and soon spread to the Fights With Troops In Streets

SPIRIT OF REVOLT

with all their contents, were totally deof Lisbon. stroyed in a short time. There was stiff gale of wind from the northwest A few moments later a number of houses, three or four blocks away, and the Ellensburg Lumber Company's mill Were discovered on fire, all of which, save the mill, were wiped out in short patch to the Times to-day says that tally wounded. Those directly interested in the Port Save the Inil, were wiped out in State of Simpson and Churchill railway which it until after 4 o'clock. As to just how from Lisbon, by way of Madrid, redispatches received there last night the killed and wounded laid out in the fire originated no one seems to by the premier after the dismissal of nessed the struggle.

Oporte received the premier with instead of hoped for cheers.

by cries of

Crepe Banners

"Death to the Dictator."

RETURNED SUBSCRIPTIONS.

erously in Business.

COMMERCIAL QUESTIONS

bers of Commerce in Tokio.

MUTINOUS RUSSIAN

SAPPERS EXECUTED

After Trial By Court

Martial.

EMMERSON-CROCKETT CASE.

Request For Commission to Take Evidence.

Fredericton, June 21.—In the Emmer-

The Financier and Bullionist, of Lon-

To-day Col. May, who is prominently identified with the financial side of the enterprise, is in the city accompanied by Messrs. McKay and Fraser, who house proper was 60 by 100 feet and are associated with him in it. are associated with him in it.

The arrival of Col. May in the city is for the purpose of taking steps towards forwarding supplies to Port Simpson between the troops and the people and much bloodshed.

Their warehouse was insured for necessary for the early stages of the $3,000, a loss of fully $2,000. Kleinberg work. The financial arrangements they work the financial arrangements they which they intended using in a new an interesting discussion took place report are perfect and there is abund-warehouse. They will rebuild at once, this afternoon on the initiative of ant capital back-of the enterprise to report are perfect and there is abund- warehouse. They will rebuild at once. Company is pretty heavy in the way of in place of flags and yells and insults undismayed by the volleys of the Col. May himself is well acquainted lumber and outbuildings, though the with western conditions. He was formof Rupert's Land as the Metropolitan See, as in accordance with the unbrok- erly governor of Alaska and is enthu- at $100,000. Mr. Reed's books, valuable west of Herschel Island, where winter one who was to have joined the Duchluarters were made.

It was while here that Capt. Mikkel
It was while here that Capt. Mikkel
The who was to have joined the Duchluarters were made.

It was while here that Capt. Mikkel
The who was to have joined the Duchluarters were made.

The was while here that Capt. Mikkel
The subsided the charred remains of a man were found where the fire started.

REMARKABLE STORY.

Belleville, Ont., June' 20 .- In the police court to-day, a nine and a half year old boy, Dorman Foote, told a remark-Canadian Estates Limited Acted Genable story. He said that a few days before May 24th, a 16 year old girl named Amy Stewart, who is also under arrest, proposed to him that they burn to the fact that the negotiations for all the barns and frame buildings along the acquisition of the Douglas Lake the barns and frame buildings along the outside of the river to the lower bridge, a distance of 200 yards. Both of them, he said, set fire to Jenkin's livery stable twice, but each time the fire was extinguished. He said he told Chief Newton to ring the fire bell.

Segregant Hayes took the boy to the Chief Newton to ring the fire bell.

Sergeant Hayes took the boy to the scene of the fire at the Queen's hotel, where the largest barns were burned, the fire extending to the stables and the fire extending to the stables and kitchen of the Victoria hotel. He showed the officer how he had set the showed the officer how he had set the showed the officer how he had set the barn on fire by throwing lighted matches in the rear door, which tallied exactly with the description given by those who first saw the blaze.

The pose of acquiring the share capital of the Douglas Lake Cattle Company, has issued a circular in which it is stated that it has been impossible to conclude the negotiations for the acquisition of those who first saw the blaze. the Douglas Lake shares.

At 1 o'clock, the magistrate and scription money is intact, and this will be returned to applicants, together Monday, allowing the boy to go with with 7 per cent. Interest. This action reflects the greatest credit on all con-trail building which will be commenced GRAND LODGE OF MASONS. they go far to show that the work will Officers Elected at Gathering in Vantry, past deep canyons and high bluffs, couver-F. Bowser is Grand that the statement to the effect that this company refused to consider requests or complaints from its employees, either individually or as a committee, is entirely untrue. We have always been very glad to meet any of trail must necessarily make a detour grand chaplain, Rev. H. G. F. Chinton, for discussion, will not assume any round this headland from Pachena Bay Vancouver; grand treasurer, Henry H. to Bamfield. This will mean that at Watson, Vancouver; grand treasurer, Henry H. definite form. Most careful deliberato Bamfield. This will mean that at Watson, Vancouver; grand secretary, tion is expected before any resolution is this point the road will be carried some four miles from the coast line. Again

R. E. Brett, Victoria; grand tyler, A. given final form.

Gothard, Vancouver.

nearly insurmountable and were they Election of Officers-Dr. Sproule Again Grand Master.

wood on every hand. To combat the the Orange Grand Lodge, This after- Forty-Eight Men Have Been Shot of such bridges being necessary is in-Winnipeg, June 20.—The court of appeal to-day gave decisions in two wide-ly known criminal cases.

COURT OF APPEAL

In Sudge Baldry's decision yesterday ordered the passengers back into there was no chance of going on with the case. He would aply on Monday to the Supreme court to have Judge dicative of the massive nature of the y known criminal cases. to the Supreme court to he Wallace McCraw, of Grande Anse, Landry's decision overruled. The trail builders have been drawn

New York, June 22.-A Paris dis- crowd and a young officer was mor-A neighboring square was filled with port that popular hatred of the system of government by decree instituted the windows of the Hotel Dux Angletern. Several English visitors wit-

Supplied Missiles to the Men

The premier made a journey from the and urged them on. The Premier made a journey from the Capital to Oporto in the hope of obtaining the Premier made a journey from the Republican leaders harangued the people to revolt. taining a popular endorsement of his taining a popular endorsement of his policy, but at every station between invaded, the mob breaking up furni-Lisbon and Oporto crowds hissed and Oporte received the premier with ture for their extempore fortifications, Chef Lisbon Cafe was completely destroyed. The mob

Fought with Great Fury,

When the dictator returned to Lisbon there was a furious riot outside the dead. All the newspapers appeared the railway station. The cavalry charged the mob and infantry fired into it.

Last night the troops again fired on people in public squares. Most serious events are expected. The spirit of revolt is widespread. Revolvers were freely used by the The censorship is strict.

> AMENDMENT TO THE B. N. A. ACT

BILL RECEIVES

SECOND READING Measure Will Pass British House of Commons Before End of

London, June 21.-The British North America Act as amended passed its second reading in the House of Commons to-day. Hon. Winston Churchill and Hamar Greenwood in supporting it Will Be Discussed at Meeting of Cham- pointed out that while the government could not interfere between British Columbia and the Dominion, the way was Tokio, June 22.-A joint meeting of Vancouver, June 20.—The Provincial for to-day to consider and pass resolutions on the American question, but the constant tons of the constant t is signature. The however, delay-this motion until for adjournment, expressing doubt such a measure, yed. On Monday will most a measure, and will be put into force at the earli-the motion until most a maximum of the measure and will be put into force at the earli-the motion until for adjournment, expressing doubt such a measure, and will be put into force at the earli-the motion until for adjournment, expressing doubt such a measure, and will most a measure.

In all 4b nien will be engaged in charge of J. D. Macdonald. The object is to bind the soverign developed to consider and pass resolute the by-law. An order to carry out the by-law may be made through publication in each of the two local parameters.

Edward J. Nally, vice-president and charge of J. D. Macdonald. The object is to bind the soverign developed in the controversy regarding of Masons convened this clons on the American question, but the by-law may be made through publication in each of the two local parameters.

Edward J. Nally, vice-president and charge of J. D. Macdonald. The object is to build a trail from Bamfield Creek to Carmanah to expedite the saving of the city in an address.

The absentees are, however, expected as follows to night: Grand Master Schofield, to Carmanah to expedite the saving of the city in an address.

The charge of J. D. Macdonald. The object is to build a trail from Bamfield Creek to Carmanah to expedite the saving of the city in an address.

The absentees are, however, expected as follows to night: Grand Master Schofield, to Carmanah to expedite the saving of the contingency of wrecks.

The charge of J. D. Macdonald. The object is to build a trail from Bamfield Creek to Carmanah to expedite the saving of the contingency of wrecks.

The charge of J. D. Macdonald it was impossible to bind the soverign owing to the inability of representation of the American question, but the by-law down of the defend the welcome of the contingency of wrecks.

The charge of J. D. Macdonald owing to the inability of representations of th

The chambers of commerce to be represented are those of Tokio, Osaka, brought the matter to the brought the matter to the colonial of-fice. Mr. Greenwood said the bill must pass by July 1st and said the govern-

Held Up Two Stages and Relieved Sixteen Passengers of Their

Wawona, Cal., June 22.—Two of the regular stages from Raymond, bound for Wawona, were held up and sixteen passengers relieved of their valuables by the "Black Kid." the famous lone chester rifle leveled at Archie Turner the driver. He called upon Turner to hold up his hands and then commanded the passengers to do likewise. bandit waited until the second stage appeared, when he commanded all the Kiev, Russia, June 21,-The court-marpassengers to alight and hold up their tial convened to try the mutinous sappers at the summer camp at Banievak is said It is reported that forty-eight mutineers Judge Landry Refuses Prosecution's a handkerchief and pass it over to the

While the collecting process was go Fredericton, June 21.—In the Emmer-son-Crockett case to-day Judge Landry to stand behind him, thus using her as refused a request of the prosecution for a chiefd from any attack from the rear a commission to take evidence in Eng- While waiting for the second stage and a commission to take evidence in England and Boston. They wanted to get evidence of two former porters at the St. Lawrence hall.

While waiting for the second was made the bandit talked pleasantly with the driver. The robber helped in misself to some the content of the second of th Is about 150 feet wide. Another called Humphreys, Nova Scotia, T. F. Butt, Clanawa river is some 90 feet in Newfoundland, H. F. McCloud, New breadth, and over both of these bridges will be thrown constructed of the Supreme court in September.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley said that under plenishing of his stock of foodstuffs, h udge Landry's decision yesterday ordered the passengers back into the

The trail builders have been drawn from various parts of the Island. Some have come from Clayoquot, some from price of bread in this city goes up. A 14, pound loaf will be sold at the rate of 16 loaves for $1 retail, and $18 loaves for $1 retail,

Mr. Carzow has not seen the members of the party which are on the ex
What their next move would be when ing out such a scheme the petitioner urges that the facts alleged constitute such extraordinary circumstances as proably be read to the aldermen.

The by-law provides that all owners or lessee take such measures as are prescribed by the board of horticulture of the province under the act to ed the appearance of this motion until der the by-law. An order to carry out it was almost time for adjournment, the by-law may be made through pub-and upon Ald. Meston expressing doubt lication in each of the two local paas to the legality of such a measure, pers. It is anticipated that the by-law it will again come ub, and will most and will be put into force at the earli-petitioned the city to take some action towards the extermination or subjec-EXPECTS TO HAVE tion of the insect pests within the city OYSTERS IN FALL limits, and communications were sent to J. R. Anderson, deputy minister of ing for advice upon the matter. On June 15th Mr. Cunningham wrote that although he had power to proceed Col. Markham is Sanguine With Respect to Raising the Eastern against people guilty of an infraction of the horticulture act, he would have his position considerably strengthened Mr. Cunningham stated also that the tent caterpillar has been epidemic on the coast for a long time, (From Saturday's Daily.) Col. Markham, who is deeply interand that conditions this season were most favorable for its development. He had recommended the spraying of trees harbor, is on his way to Victoria after with lime-sulphur-sait solution, and those people who had taken this adpose of securing oysters for planting in vice in good faith had not been put to the Atlantic Coast for the purpose of securing oysters for planting in the purpose of securing oysters. The West Coast Oyster Company much trouble by the pest.

"I have some interesting and satisfactory reports along this line," says Mr. Cunningham in this letter. "The West Coast Oyster Company have seeured 1,175,000 oyster seeds off the coasts of Connecticut and Massa-the trouble with some of the citizens of Victoria is, and always has been, that they will not accept either advice or information regarding the necessity of clearsing their friut and shade trees. We placed the necessary information in their hands last spring, went to the expense of inspecting their trees and advised how to treat them, but very few responded, and the result you know. I am now forced to adopt sterner methods, much as I regret to involve people in legal prosecution. I can no longer delay the enforcement of our horticultural laws.

"As you pointed out the city council has power to enact by-laws for the abatement of any nuisance. I would therefore recommend that a by-law be reacted to provide among other thing."

In difference, by sters now is now in the temperature anywhere from 15 to 20 degrees below zero to 80 above. There should, therefore, be no difficulty on this score, while the conditions were the same on both coasts.

If everything went well—and he enacted to provide, among other things, that all owners of gardens and orchards within the corporate limits of victoria shall use such methods and obey such instructions for the destruction of insect pests and disease as the provincial inspector of fruit pests may ue from time to time, and that all than the native western. property affected shall bear the expense of cleansing where the owners neglect to have it done. Some such provision will strengthen will strengthen and that all the native western. The company will deal in native oysters, clams and crabs, as well as in eastern oysters. Col. Markham is now provision will strengthen and that all the native western. provision will strengthen my hands, in negotiation for the securing of large prevent conflict of authority, and, what native oyster beds off the northern coast of vancouver island.

or lessees of property whereon there are fruit trees, shade trees, bushes or committee to prepare a report for the plants shall keep the same cleansed from tent caterpillars or other pests. In the case of any neglect being reported the Mayor shall have power to issue a notice requiring that the owner of the province under the act of the ac will have power to order the work done by the sanitary officer or other city officials, the cost to be assessed from officials, the cost to be assessed from the the owner or lessee. In case payment of the cost is refused it shall be re-destructive insects will be considered to the land owned by the city council on Monday evening. It is also provided that the land owned by anyone neglection of at the last session of the lands owned by anyone neglection of the lands owned by the lands owned by anyone neglection of the lands owned by the the board of aldermen, when a motion asking leave to introduce it was handed in over Ald. Meston's signature. The 000, were the successful bidders building the big 20,000 ton battleships. FLOODS IN THESSALY.

More Than One Hundred Persons Re-