A PLEASANT DINNER

AT THE CANADA HOTEL

James Nelson, Ninety Years Old, Entertained a Number of Friends.

CHATHAM, N. B., Dec. 10.—A pleasant time was spent in the Canada House Thursday evening, when a large number of James Nelson's friends were his guests at dinner. Mr. Nelson, who is ninety years of age, is still hale and hearty, and during the past summer completed an important contract with the Miller Tanning Co. of Milltown. Each winter he leaves for Boston to spend the cold period with relatives there and returns in the spring.

After ample justice had been done to the excellent repast prepared by Mr.
Johnston, proprietor of the Canada House, an enjoyable hour or two was spent on an impromptu programme.
W. H. Ross, of the W. H. Johnson Co., gave several selections on the bagpipes.
Songs were given by Mr. Nelson, Jas.
Johnston, John Irving, W. H. Ross, and Jas. Anderson in solos and duets.
J. Ken Egan gave several recitations, and others present assisted in the general enjoyment with a stock of good stories.

The Baptist Foreign Mission Board held its meeting last week and appointed Rev. W. V. Higgins of Toklat, India, to be foreign mission field secretary for the Maritime Provinces. Mr.
Higgins has been for nine years missionary in India under the Maritime Baptist Board. His time for furlough is up, and it is thought that he can spend two or three years as foreign mission field secretary, and then probably return to his work in India.

BAPTIST UNION NOT

A SUCCESS IN SUSSEX

Church Avenue Congregation Reopen Their Courch—Clark Teakies Is Dangerously Ill

SUSSEX, Dec. 10.—Baptist union in Sussex has not proven to be an unqualified success, and the people of the Church Avenue church have elected, for the present at least, to worship by themselves as before. The church was opened yesterday for the first time in four months, and good congregations assembled to hear Rev. Wilbur F. Alton, of Eastport, Me. Mr. Alton is a ready speaker, and made an excellent impression. His services will probably be available for another Sunday or two, until a permanent appointment is made. The Sussex male quartette sang at the evening service.

C. W. Stockton, the well known auctioner, officiated last Thursday and Friday at the largest sale of live stock ever held in this vicinity. The Spruce Grove Farm Ayrshires were offered for sale by their owner, M. H. Parlee. Buyers were here from Quebec and the United States, and it is understood that the sale realized over $1000.

Dr. F. R. Graham has disposed of his dental practice to Dr. D. S. Cleveland, late of Egin. The doctor will be missed in club and social circles, as well as in his profession.

Mr. Clark Teakies, former street commissioner, is dangerously ill. He suffered a stroke of paralysis about a month ago and has been gradually growing weaker.

The cold this morning was intense, the mercury reaching the lowest point of the year, 23 degrees below zero.
The past week has been one of the most continuously severe ever recorded here. Roads are excellent, however, and business reported fairly brisk.
