HOW NEWCASTLE SLEUTH WAS FOOLED

Campbellton Events.
Detective Alphonse Goguen of Newcastle, is down in the dumps. Smart wonder? When a man discovers that he is as far from the goal of his ambition as ever, after being led to believe that he is within sight of it, he is apt to feel depressed.
That's the way it was with Mr. Goguen. It has long been his dream to emulate the deeds of the immortal Sherlock Holmes. With this end in view he became a member of the staff of the Webster Detective Agency, Indianapolis, Ind., and made Newcastle his headquarters. He planned a regulation sleuth's badge conspicuously on his waistcoat and stood ready to unravel the deepest mystery or run down the most sought after crook. For a time, however, there was nothing doing and when he arrived in Campbellton last Friday on business with the International Correspondence Schools with which he is also connected, he had about given up all hope of ever distinguishing himself as a Hawkshaw. But, he had scarcely been here an hour when he received a "telegram" which ran: "Bank broken into by two Italians. About $7,000 stolen and two watchmen fatally shot. Men wanted to be somewhere on the I. C. R. between St. John and Moncton. Two thousand dollar reward for their capture." Signed: Webster Detective Agency.
This is what Detective Goguen had long prayed for. He immediately notified the police he boarded the down freight and went as far as Bathurst. He stayed in the Gloucester shiretown until the arrival of the Maritime express; then he came north riding between Bathurst and Campbellton he went through the express several times, but failed to discover any traces. He said after words that the sleeping car conductor refused to permit him to search the berths, and that he had contented himself with an examination of the passengers in the first and second class cars. He got off at Campbellton feeling rather disappointed but not discouraged. The following day he was on the job again, bright and early. He watched every train which passed through the station, but all to no avail.
Meanwhile all sorts of rumors were in circulation in Campbellton. One was to the effect that the Bank of Nova Scotia, St. John, had been broken into, the night watchman shot and $7,000 stolen. I. C. R. Detective Noble desiring to get at the bottom of the matter, hunted up Detective Goguen, and together they went to the telegraph office, where it was found out that no such telegram as Goguen had received had been received. Detective Noble concluded that the whole thing was a joke. Goguen now believes that it was, and he would give a good deal to know who was responsible for it. The little joke cost him $4.50 in cash besides about twenty-four hours time.

MEN WANTED A FREE PASSAGE

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., July 4.—Thomas Mulcahey, of the International Railway, has had an emigration problem on his hands during the past week. At an expense of about eight thousand dollars, two hundred and seventy Englishmen were brought to work on the new railway. About thirty took their departure for parts unknown shortly after their arrival. There has been a continual exodus ever since, until now it is said that over one hundred have escaped. The men complained to the chief of police of the lack of sleeping accommodation. To use the language with which they voiced their indignation against the bunka which had been put up: "They expected us to sleep in manure with nothing but boughs to lay on." There was also some trouble over the wages. Some have been arrested and given their choice of either working or going to jail to await trial. Two men were taken to the officers to the train this morning and put aboard, but the train had hardly left the station before they jumped off and have not been heard of since. According to contract the men agreed to work on the railroad for six months. The men who left are scattered all over the country. It was quite a serious loss to Mr. Mulcahey. It is generally believed that some of the men simply wished a free passage out and had no serious idea of working.
There have been various explanations given of the small number of salmon that are being caught in the river this year. The favorite theory among the fishermen has been the large number of white porpoises, which chase and destroy the fish. The refusal of certain mills which finds its way into the river is now being urged. The bazaar in aid of the Hotel Dieu Hospital opened on Monday night and notwithstanding the disagreeable weather has been well attended. It will close on July 11th.

The government fishery steamer patrol No. 1 was fired upon on Sunday June 23rd, on her way from Campbellton to Dalhousie. Alex Cook was arrested today on a warrant and taken before John Bassett, J.P. W. A. Mott, is defending him and Jas. S. Harquail appears for the prosecution.
Officer Savoy has accepted a position as I. C. R. policeman at station. Harry Jones has temporarily taken his place and will likely receive the appointment.
Two hundred of the leading citizens of Campbellton paid honor to J. S. Benedict and family and R. H. Anderson and family, who are leaving the town, in tendering them a salute. Lady Ellen on Tuesday evening. The Campbellton band accompanied the party. The steamer went as far as Dalhousie and then turned. Cut glass berry sets were presented, one to each family. Eulogistic speeches were made by Mayor Murray, Judge McArthur and W. A. Mott, M. P. P.
A very interesting event took place in St. Albert's Church, Gaspere, June 22nd, when Miss Minnie Kavanagh, eldest daughter of the late J. J. Kavanagh, collector of customs for the port of Gaspere, was married to Dr. W. Maguire of New Carlisle. The happy couple left for their home in New Carlisle by the Lady Ellen.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret McNeill, on July 2nd, when her only daughter, Christine Mary, was united in marriage to J. Edgar Gillis of Little Head. The bride looked very beautiful in costume of cream silk, with a veil of orange blossoms, Irish lace and pearl trimmings and carrying a bouquet of cream roses. Mr. and Mrs. Gillis left on the Maritime express amid a shower of rice and good wishes for a trip to Quebec and Ottawa.
At the home of W. J. Gillis, Fatherlands, on June 28th, Mrs. Henrietta Myles was united in marriage to David J. Wyers of Rouleauville. On their wedding tour they will visit Montreal, Toronto, Niagara and other places of interest.
E. W. Lewis, principal of the Grammar school, is in Chatham supervising the entrance examinations to the Normal School, and Principal Jones of Dalhousie is performing a like service here.
Miss Lou Gillis is spending her vacation in Newcastle.
Miss Seales, Edinburgh, is visiting Mrs. H. Muirhead.
Miss Ola Walter and Master Palmer of Boston are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gray. They are summer school for Sunday school workers in progress this week at the Presbyterian Church. About eighty delegates are in attendance and much interest is being taken in the meeting.

THE SEASON OPENS.

Excuse me for wishin' to want to go fishin'.
Excuse me for wishin' the trees were a-sweelin'.
The bloom and the berry down over my head
On the banks of the stream that sings there in its bed!
Excuse me for wishin'—my heart is a-fishin'.
I'm not fit fer workin' in such a condition.
It's nothin' but wishin' and wishin' and wishin'—
Excuse me, excuse me, excuse me for wishin'.
But, dad blame it all, I just will go a-fishin'!
—Haltmore Sun.

THE NEEDFUL (Argonaut.)

A young mother in Spokane, said Senator Borah, had engaged a new nurse for her baby. The nurse came to her and said: "I don't know what the matter, madam, but the little one cries and cries. I can do nothing to quiet it." The mother thought a moment. Then, brightening up, she said: "I remember now. Baby's last nurse was a southern mammy. You will find the stove polish on the third shelf of the kitchen closet."
