FOUR PERISH

Each Dominion's Delegates P. E. Islanders Go Down in

One Delegate—Absolute Colonial Autonomy Basic Principle of All.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—The Imperial defense conference met again at the foreign office to resume the discussion on the naval memorandum. This branch of the question covers a large field that it may be necessary to hold a further sitting before handing over the mass of detail involved to the expert committee. The delegates do not feel themselves competent to discuss the minutiale of naval or military questions. Probably a great deal of discussion in detail in committee will be necessary to agree on any perfected plan of action.

It appears to be doubtful if the conference is as unaimous on the subject of defense as it was hoped that it would be. The various colonial delegates have their instructions from their governments as to the course that they should pursue, and it appears that the principals of absolute autonomy is at the basis of all these.

One delegate to the conference remarked today that "all we are doing is so far completely secret, and all that I can tell you is that things are going the wrong way and I'm sorry for it."

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Aug.

5.—One of the worst drowning accidents in the history of Charlottetown, occurred at three o'clock this afternoon off Rocky Point shore, about three miles from the city, and near the entrance of the harbor. Four men perished. Ephram Gallant, aged 45, president of the Laborers' Protective Union; Harry Gallant, 22; James Burnett, 26; Dan. McAuleay, 24, the first named being the only married man. They were all members of the League of the Cross, a temperance society in connection with the Roman Catholic Church.

which the delegates to the conference were entertained last night, under the presidency of Major Gen. Henry Thos. Arbuthlot, C. Now they had their different departments of the army in the Dominion, and they could put 50,000 men in the field and in a few weeks another 50,000. (Loud cheers.)

They were also trying to do their duty with regard to the navy. At the moment that they in Canada were convinced that there was a danger or risk to the maintenance of the integrity of the Empire they would come to the rescue of the Empire with all the money that they could possibly get, and all the men that might be necessary in prder to help this country man its feets. (Cheers.)

In Canada they were going to begin at once to do their duty and to lay the foundation for building up a navy which would be ready to co-operate and be part of the great British navy when trouble arose.
