DEC. 12.—Lam pleased to state that the skating risk is a certainty and it the weather keeps in strong proper moon there will be a happy time for the skaters on Saturday, with visions of carnivas in the near future.

The asual number of holiday entertainments are being prepaired and the churches are all endeavor, ing to turnish excellent Christmas music. The choir of the methodist church have engaged the services, of Prof. Lillioridge, of Moust Allison, as director and as a matter of course will acquit themselves most creditably. As there are so many fine voices Mr. Boscadale has resigned the position of choir master in Christ's church and Mr. H. Hillicoat will all souls be up to a good standard.

Prof. Sterne is in charge of a fine choir in St. Stophens church which never falls to attain a poin of excellency. I am told the professor is talking of making an attempt to treat the public to a canala later on.

The choir of the baptist church is working under difficulties and cannot be expected to do fine work with a plano accompaniment in a small hall. Mr. C. O. Tupper d rects most capably and wr can be assured there will be no fallure.

The baptist church was well filled on Monday evening last to hear the excellent programme furnished by the choir assisted by a number of their fieleds. An exceedingly interesting programme was given. Mrs. Blair Fulton's reading was exceptionally good especially the last, entitled "Rock of Ages," which was reclied to music. This is Mrs. Fulton's first appearance before a New Glasgow andlesor, and I am sure the impression is a very favorable one, Miss McKean pleased everyone with her singing, which elicited many complimentary remarks. The St. Andrews quartette composed of Messrs. Mason McKay, H. Musgrave, J. W. Stewart and J. Stewart were well applianded while Mr. McKay who has already won much favor in New Ghasgow made many new friends and highly pi-saed the audience with his selections. The dust by Messrs. Rice and Musgrave proved also to be a leading feature. Miss Annie Rice presided at the piano in her usual good form. The choir under Mr. Rice are to be congratuated on furnishing so excellent an entertainment it was unquestionably one of the most pleasing entertainments I have ever has the pieasure of attenning for some time and well merrited the large andlence.
