1roquois Post—"The Easter services in the Methodist Church, were of a most interesting and helpful character. In the morning, the pastor, Rev. T. J. Vickery, preached an excellent sermon suitable for the occasion. In the evening the servce the service was under the auspices of the W. M. S., when a most inspring program was presented most inspiring program was presented to a large congregation. An impressive responsive service, entitled ""We Would See Jesus" was conducted by Mrs. Vickery. The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Wm. G. Towriss of Athens, who chose as her subject—"The Uplifted Christ." The prockers presented of a charming perspeaker, possessed of a charming personality, delighted her audience, not only with her eloquence, but more by the earnestness of her message, in which she did, indeed, hold up "The Light of the World." The ladies' choir assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Wealing. Wealing. When the ladies' choir assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Wealing. assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Mealing, who sang very beautifully a duet at both services, added much to the enjoyment of this most sacred of Holy Days.

Much satisfaction is expressed by the residents over the death of B.A. Hogg, who died at his late residence on Weed Lane. Mr. Hogg was all hog. The Wom-Institute erected a street lamp in front of Hogg's dump, furnishing Lamp, Oil, Wick and Chimney. Hogg keptit lighted for a month and sent in an account for the matches. He was the champion Hogg of nine Provinces. Hogg formally ame from Toronto.

came from Toronto.

A clinging wedding took place last week at the residence of Mr. & Mrs. B. A. Bean, when their only misfit was married to Mr. Hy. Stalk of Garlictown. It was a scented affair. Miss Bean was very popular at the Corners especially with the Jazzers. Her wedding dress consisted of four ounces of the finest wall paper. She carried a bunch of early radishes and the guests carried away the presents that were of any use. The wedding Grand March was played by her Fag-smoking brother on the Jew's Harp The presents were numerous and worth-less. Evidently Mr. Stalk will find himself in the soup before many moons. We extend our sympathy to Mr. Stalk and all concerned.
