

and Pierce Ryan; including Mrs. Capt. Colquhoun and William Leahy, 10s.; Dorothy Cody, 5s.; Titus Carter, 3s. 1-2d.; John Dunn, 2s. 6d.; and John Willard, 1s. 3d.

2 10 7 1-2

Ward No. 3.

Collected by Messrs. Edward Eustace and Patrick Going; including Peter Nowlan and Wm. Murphy, Junr., £1; Michael Quinlan, 10s. 2 1-2d.; James Mallen, 10s.; Wm. Maher, 6s. 3d.; Mrs. Power, James Dunn, John Cleary, John Perry, Arthur Jones, Michael Fitzpatrick, Philip Healy and Mrs. Power, 5s. 2 1-2d.; James Brenan, Thos. Kenna, Andrew Culleton, Robert Walsh, Michael McLean, Mrs. McLean, Arthur Brady and P. Rafter, 5s.; John Hanly, John Cummins, Bridget Gorman, Maurice Nogman, John Lalor and Philip McCormick, 2s. 6d.; Michael Keating, Pierce Larkin, John Kean, John Holland, McDonald and Healy, Mrs. Cleary, John McEvoy, John McCartney, Mrs. O'Brien, Robert English, Patrick O'Neill, Patrick Kelly, Nicholas Keating, and Margaret Walsh, 1s. 3d.

9 10 2 1-2

Collected by Messrs. James Wallace and Michael Murphy; including P. Drummond, £2 10s. John Fitzpatrick, £1; Thomas Kilfoyle, 10s. 2 1-2d.; Mrs. Fogarty, James Dugan, and Michael Nolan, 10s. 5d.; Denis Fenton and Daniel Buckley, 5s.; Michl. Brawdars, Robt. McCormick, Michael Kent, Patrick Leahy and William Tracey, 2s. 6d.; Catherine Carroll, Patk. McGrath, Richard Baker, Mrs. Dunphy, Wm. Donovan, Bartholomew Sullivan and Thomas Cleary, 1s. 3d.

7 2 8 1-2

Ward No. 4.

Collected by Messrs. Wm. Jamieson and Thomas Walsh; including Wm. Jamieson, £10; Maurice Brude, £3; Thos. Walsh and Joseph English, £1; Martin Murphy, Wm. O'Brien,

M. Corrigan and John Maguire, 10s.; Patrick Wall, 10s. 5d.; Richard Walsh, 7s. 8 1-2d.; M. Flannery and M. Sinclair, 5s. 2 1-2d.; James Quin, 7s. 6d.; Mrs. Horne, 5s.; William Griffin, James Reilly, John Maher, Mrs. Robinson, Patrick Costello, John Doyle, Daniel Driscoll, Sergt. Hyke, John Hyke, M. McGrath, John Hoolahan, M. Hibbert and Patrick Coleman, 1s. 3d.

£21 17 3 1-2

(The remainder will be inserted next week.)

PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

On Monday, May 4, the usual Sermon in favour of the Association for the Propagation of the Faith, was preached in the Church of St. Sulpice, at Paris, by Dr. Verrolle, Bishop of Colombo, and Vicar Apostolic of Mantchourie, in Chinese Tartary. His Lordship, for an hour and a half captivated the religious attention of his immense auditory. He vividly described the sufferings of the Christians in China in their struggles against paganism, and against the superstition and lying philosophy of Confucius. Well may France be proud of the establishment and maintenance of this glorious Institution.

The Anniversary of the death of Napoleon was celebrated on the 5th of May, in the Parish Church of the Invalids. The Princess Matilda (Countess Demiedoff, the niece of the Emperor) was present, and the Mass was offered by the Abbe Coquereau.

The Cardinal Prefect of the Propaganda has addressed an important circular by order of his Holiness to all the Heads of Foreign Missions, in which, amongst other matters of great interest, the establishment of Diocesan Seminaries and the selection of a native clergy are particularly recommended.

A most imposing solemnity is preparing at Liege—the centenary jubilee in honour of the institution of the Feast of Corpus Christi, which, as is well known, had its origin in that city, when Urban IV. was Archdeacon of Liege. In common with Rome, the city of Liege enjoys the great happiness of celebrating, the whole year, without interrup-