

Daily steamers run between Shediac and Pictou on the Mainland, and Summerside and Charlottetown on the Island.

At Pictou and Shediac connections are made with the trains upon the Intercolonial Railway, which will be opened throughout in June next.

Excellent Hotels are to be found on the Island, and no more delightful summer journey can be taken than a visit to Prince Edward Island.

Charlottetown, Feb., 1876.

---