

- Members. 2nd. The admission, expulsion, and suspension of its members.
- Qualification. 3rd. Establishing one or more standards of qualification, for candidates seeking to be admitted members thereof.
- Examination. 4th. Examining the qualifications of such candidates, and the conduct of members with a view to expulsion or suspension, and requiring and authorizing the administration of an oath to every person to whom such examination shall be entrusted, that he will perform the duty of examiner, without fear, favour or affection, malice or ill-will, and to the best of his judgment and ability, and to every person giving evidence in the matter of such examination, that he will testify truly. 5 10
- General. 5th. The government of the Corporation.
- Museums. 6th. The maintenance and regulation of one or more Museums, Libraries, Galleries of Art, Reading Rooms, Observatories, Chemical Laboratories, Depositories for Maps, Plans, Models, Documents, and other valuables, and other like undertakings in aid of the purposes of the said corporation. 15
- Paying Officers. 7th. The payment of its Officers and Servants.
- Capital, &c. 8th. The raising of capital by the issue of transferable stock, or otherwise, and establishing the conditions upon which such stock may be issued, transferred or forfeited. 20
- Application. 9th. The affiliation thereto of local societies organized for the same purpose.
- Conversazione. 10th. The holding of Literary and Scientific conversazione.
- Fines and Subscription. 11th. Imposing moderate and reasonable fines upon its members for the infraction of its by-laws, and the collection of subscriptions or enforcing other engagement of its members, with the said corporation. 25
- 12th. The general administration of its affairs, and
- 13th. The amendment or repeal of any of its existing by-laws.
- Amending and Repealing By-laws. 14th. But no By-law shall be amended or repealed without the observance of the formalities, and except in the manner therein prescribed for that purpose, and the said corporation shall have generally all corporate powers requisite for the purposes of this Act. 30
- Application of Revenues. III. All the revenues of the said corporation, from whatever source derived, shall be applied to the maintenance of the said corporation, and of such Museums and other undertaking, in aid thereof as aforesaid, and to the acquisition, improvement and repair of the buildings and other real estate required, to that end, and to no other purpose. 35
- Agreement with others for co-operation. IV. The said corporation may, at any time, make and execute any agreement it may deem expedient, with any person or corporation, or any other Educational, Scientific, or Literary Institution, to secure to the said corporation the care or use of any Library or other of the undertakings as aforesaid. 40