

2. Each subject for examination shall have a separate paper, and the paper shall be so arranged as to allow sufficient time to the Candidate to give it full attention and intelligent treatment.

3. The examinations shall commence each day at 9.30 a.m., continue until noon, recommence at 1.30 p.m., and continue until 4 o'clock p.m., day by day until they are finished.

4. Each Candidate shall be designated by a number which he must place conspicuously at the head of each sheet of paper delivered to him, which number will correspond with that appearing opposite to his name in the list of Candidates in the hands of the examiner in charge.

5. The questions will be numbered, and the full number of marks assigned to each question will also be shown in the margin of the printed examination paper.

6. The date and hour for the issue of each examination paper, and the full time allowed for answering the whole set of questions, will be plainly stated at the head of each paper.

7. The examiners, whether members of the Board or sub-examiners, shall exercise the greatest possible care that no information relative to the questions shall become known before the hour fixed for passing the papers to the Candidates.

8. Should the Board at any time have reason to suppose that any Candidates have copied from each other, or have obtained information relative to the subjects for examination from improper sources, the results of the examinations, in respect to such Candidates, shall be held in suspense until the Board shall have made a thorough investigation of the circumstances, and if the sub-examiners should have cause to suspect irregularities of the kind, they will at once report them to the Board.

9. A set of examination papers on each subject shall be provided, and all the papers on such subject shall be enclosed in one envelope, bearing an endorsement specifying the subject and the number of papers contained therein, and said envelope shall only be opened when the time has arrived for the examination on that subject, and in the presence of the Candidates.

10. The stationery necessary for carrying out the examination shall be supplied by the Board, and each sheet of paper used by the Candidates shall be written on one side only.

11. No other person than the examiner in charge and the Candidates shall be admitted into the examination rooms.

12. The examiners shall refrain from communicating to any person the apparent or presumed results of the examinations until the same have been officially announced.
