Tri-county consolation to Applewood juveniles

The Applewood Dominion Bridge juvenile hockey team took the consolation A championship at the Tri-County Tournament

'NEWS ITEM'
MARCH 29: MHL faced with overcrowding.

last week in Milton. In the championship game Applewood dumped Chinguacousy 4-1 as Gord Fleming, Dan Carway, O. J. Miller and Lee Wolfrain scored.

Carway counted again in the semi-final as George Thompson added two and Rick Hall, Glen Hewat, Lee Olsen and Mike Kearns singled as Applewood dropped Burlington 7-3.

In an earlier win against Oakville Carway fired another goal, as did Hall, Hewat and Olsen.

Randy Jones also tallied. The short-handed Mississauga club was forced into the consolation round after a 6-0 loss to Oshawa.

Team coach Hector Lachapelle and manager, Bruce Caton told the News that if the club had qualified for the championship series nothing could have stopped them.

Leafs ... Dixie ... ballet

Take a good look at this boy. Before you can say twenty years he could be playing in the National Hockey League.

He is Brant Wilson, a two-year-old who lives on Gulleden Drive in Mississauga with his parents.

Brant, who has just turned two, not only skates but is a veteran swimmer, trained by the Jack Buckler Aquatics Ltd.

The coach is instructor Marg Herweter.

His proud father, Brian has already offered his son's future services to the Toronto Maple Leafs for the sum of $125,000, with a threat that he might go to Dixie.

The Dixie threat did little good as the Toronto Marlboro executive and friend of Brian's laughed it off and suggested that some day Brant will probably make an excellent ballet dancer.

There is talk that Brant will next take up skiing and even go to Europe to do so.

Jean Claude Killy, look out!

And this is no April Fool's joke.
