

taken partial possession of the same.

There is no doubt that ~~the location~~ ^{an addition} to ~~of~~ the present Reserve at Fisher's Grant, which contains only eighty (80) acres, is very desirable, there being about thirty eight families in the Band and the extent of the reserved land owned by them amounts to eighty acres above mentioned and ^{another small Reserve of} fifty acres situated on the Straits of Northumberland or one hundred and thirty acres altogether ^{for the thirty eight families}. The want of wood ^{moreover} on the Reserve at Fisher's Grant also renders it desirable to acquire this piece of land in order that the Indians