won two or three medals in India & elsewhere. After a time he got work in a textile factory at Leeds, where he worked as labourer for ~~seven~~<sup>some</sup> years. Then he got a chance, with your letter, to come to America with a promised job at the Armistead Paint works near Springfield.
And here comes in our accused "contract-labour law".
The fore-man of the works met these men on landing. He in-expressed by it.

Very sincerely

R.M.S. "IVERNIA"

Dear Mackenzie.

What you must think of me for never thanking you for your Xmas calendar, & letter, as well as the photograph which I was so glad to have & which is excellent. But, truth to tell, changes have followed so fast on my Father's death that time, sent May 25.
